The Satanic Temple is dedicating the "largest satanic gathering in history" to Democratic Boston Mayor Michelle Wu after the group wasn't allowed to deliver a satanic invocation at Boston City Hall.

SatanCon 2023 will take place in downtown Boston April 28-30. Registered guests are required to wear masks and show proof of a COVID-19 vaccination, according to the organization.

"Attendees must wear an N-95, KN-95, or disposable surgical mask," the temple said on its site. "Gaiters, bandanas, and cloth masks will not be allowed."

The theme of the gathering in celebration of The Satanic Temple's 10-year anniversary is "Hexennacht in Boston," German for "Witches' Night," which marks the ancient pagan holiday of May Eve. The night was later changed to Walpurgisnacht to commemorate Walpurga, a Christian saint who evangelized Germany and was said to have exorcised demons from the sick.

PARENTS SWEEPED UP INTO CONTROVERSY OVER AFTER-SCHOOL SATAN CLUB SPEAK OUT: 'AT THEIR WIT'S END'

SatanCon will include discussion panels, entertainment, satanic rituals, a satanic wedding chapel and a "satanic marketplace."

The Satanic Temple said it is dedicating the event to Wu "for her unconstitutional efforts to keep TST out of Boston's public spaces." The group filed a lawsuit in 2021 against the city after multiple requests to deliver a satanic invocation before a City Council meeting were denied.

The group also filed a request to raise a flag at Boston City Hall to commemorate "Satan Appreciation Week" in July 2021, but the city announced in October 2021 that it was no longer accepting applications to raise flags at the building.

In a similar move, The Satanic Temple dedicated its 2022 conference in Scottsdale, Arizona, to former Republican Mayor Jim Lane and former Republican Councilor Suzanne Klapp, who also denied a request to invoke Satan at a City Council meeting.

TST denies belief in a personal devil, claiming its mission is "to encourage benevolence and empathy among all people, reject tyrannical authority, advocate practical common sense and justice, and be directed by the human conscience to undertake noble pursuits."

The Satanic Temple drew national attention in December for the firestorm that roiled Chesapeake, Virginia, when the organization applied to establish an After School Satan Club for kids at the local B.M. Williams Primary School.

Multiple parents involved with the controversy expressed their belief to Fox News Digital that since the temple started its club campaign in 2016, it has been targeting schools that sponsor Good News Clubs, a Christian after-school group, until school boards feel compelled to shut down after-school clubs altogether.

Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it. For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Attention attendees, before we enter the heart of darkness, please mask and social distance on our journey into the depths of pain and despair. Thank you for your understanding.

I still wear my Freddy Krueger mask. No effect on the virus, but really helps with social distancing.

Very interesting thread -- much Christian expression, plenty of questions, but too much baseless hatred. I recall that our nation was formed as "one nation under God", and I think as we forsake that religious foundation, we are devolving spiritually and intellectually. God help us.

One nation under god is from the 1950s. We were initially formed as one from many. E pluribus unum.

If they REALLY knew what they are messing with. People like them are part of the reason this country is sliding downhill. The Lord will not be mocked and is trying to get our attention with the things he is allowing to happen. If we have a REAL revival, we have a chance.

God permits freedom of choice. However what he has said will come pass will come to pass. There is no escaping God's prophesy. It must come to pass. For the sake of the faithful the final days will be cut short before all who worship God are cut down. His wrath will be something these monsters wil...

They are not mocking any deity or religion. They are protesting the preferential treatment given to some religions, discrimination against other religions, and the lack of separation between Church and State.
