2012 and the Pyramids at Giza...

by Charles Marcelllo

I happen to be one of those people who believes nothing is going to happen in 2012. However, in order to prove that to myself, I have been studying this issue for about four years now. While studying ancient cultures I noticed that each of them had a fascination with the planets. The stars are mentioned of course, but not nearly as much as the planets. So when I saw a video a few years ago talking about Orion's Belt being the reason why the Pyramids were built, or at least the Pyramids were built to honor Orion's Belt... to say I did not believe that was true would be an understatement.

I felt if the Pyramids at Giza were built to honor anything it would be a planet convergence of some kind. So when I started looking at the night sky while using the FREE online program... Stellarium... my mind was already searching for clues. I wanted to see if there was anything worth mentioning regarding planet alignments in 2012. What lead me too... or what helped me find... the picture below... I was completely taken aback by what I found. To be completely honest I never in a millions years would have thought I would actually be able to prove my theory was in fact correct. But I cannot deny, and I don't think any honest person can deny... What will happen in the night sky over Giza and how it seems to mimic the lay out of the Pyramids at Giza, is very interesting indeed... Especially since everyone already knows the Mayan's attached great importance to the year 2012... now that makes this discovery even more interesting and plausible... especially since... the ending and restarting of the Progression of the Equinox... (The natural wobble of the Earth that finishes a full cycle only once every 26,000 years or so...)

Whether you believe something will happen in 2012 or not, is not important... The fact is that the planetary alignment matches layout of Pyramids at Giza on 12.3.12 and this will happen just 18 days before 12.21.12. ... 6 plus 6 plus 6 = 18... Even the most ardent skeptics have to admit, that is one hell'va kawinkadink indeed!!!

SE Planetary alignment that will take place Dec 3, 2012 is dead-on alignment with the Pyramids at Giza. Night Sky in Giza, Egypt on December 3, 2012, local time ... one hour before sunrise compared with the Pyramids at Giza. Image generated by Starry Night Pro (the same view of the planets can be obtained using any other astronomy program, e.g. Stellarium).

If you go to this link you will read about this discovery of mine.

<http://www.abovetopsecret.com/forum/thread519207/pg2#pid7564861> ... You will also notice that picture of Giza was posted by another member of that site... I posted his picture and Dec 3 2012 together... to allow you to decide for yourself. Please take a look at that picture, or if you want to do a more in-depth analysis (please download Stellarium or use any other similar software, e.g Starry Night).

Also, it should be noted, that planetary convergence only happens every 2,737 years, and its different for at least 2 more cycles running the program forward... and doesn't happen again for over 28,000 YEARS if you run that program backwards in time...

After watching a video on the net regarding the inner chambers of the great pyramid and how they seem to point to other stars in the night sky... I decided to see what else the night sky holds/will look like on Dec 3, 2012... I believe the evidence absolutely proves that what I discovered explains that the pyramids where built to honor (or warn about) specific time marked by the planetary convergence...

Positions of planets can be used as a perfect clock. Such a clock can mark date in time (in the past and/or in the future) and can be read by intelligent beings regardless of their language and calendar they use...

The following 3 images are presented here to confirm the “match” of the planets and the pyramids using a precise triangulation survey instead of a satellite photo (click on each image to enlarge):

If the pyramids where built to honor Orion's belt, instead of matching a planetary convergence seen only once every 2737 years, and only matching the Giza layout every fifth cycle... then why are there no other massive monolithic structures honoring other, more pronounced, constellations throughout Egypt, or the world for that matter... Every ancient culture seems to be honoring the Planets, with just passing homage to constellations... Why would the pyramids be different? The answer, they wouldn't be... and what's even stranger still... If you take the three sets of three pyramid groups at Giza, and add all of the three's by two together... meaning, group 1, group 2, group 3.... add g1 to g2, g2 to g3, and g3 to g1, you get 6 plus 6 plus 6... 18... 18 plus Dec 3, equals Dec 21, 2012...

I have no doubt the Pyramids of Giza were built to honor an extremely rare planetary convergence. The creation story in the bible was created to tell that tale, and that, in part, is exactly what the Masons are celebrating. (Though the Pyramids are a lot older than the books of the bible.) The bad news for the Masons is, the stories they use to enhance the knowledge within each of its Masonic levels, has nothing to do with god or God, rather, it has everything to do with the science of our solar system, and planetary interactions... or more correctly, the Sun, Moon and Earth, the Hiram Key be damned. The stories in the bible, the first five books, has very little to do with God, more so then they have almost everything to do with extremely advanced ancient knowledge... that we can only recently understand and prove, that was in fact passed forward for the benefit of all mankind. The story of Moses and who he was gives great clues on how to re-read the first five books of the bible. The stories within the Mayan/Aztec cultures gives even more clues on how to understand the stories within the bible. There is still a lot more information that I firmly believe we will be able to discover throughout the world, and within other religious texts... that will either, support what I'm about to share with you, or perhaps... give more extremely ancient knowledge that the survivors (pay attention to that word) desperately felt they needed to pass forward. I could spend an incredible amount of time walking you through each level of this discovery. Yet I don't want to ruin the journey for others. The picture proving the Pyramids at Giza do in fact match the planetary convergence that will take place one hour before sunrise on Dec 3, 2012 is presented here in order to get your attention. I'm going to allow you, YES YOU, the opportunity to learn these truths on your own. Learn what the Sphinx will be looking at on that day and until Dec 21, 2012. Learn which two planets will be dancing in the Western Sky just before sunrise in 2012... I will hint you towards the month of August. Learn which chambers some believe align to what stars/constellations from the Great Pyramid, and then discover where they will be on Dec 3, 2012 and then on Dec 21, 2012. Some of you will already know the answers, and you're welcome. For those of you who don't... get up off your ass and find out. For those of you who claim nothing is going to happen in 2012, you may in fact be right. The good news is, you have nothing to fear from simple people freaking out because of all the hype of 2012. The bad news is... Extremely powerful people believe in the ignorant stories passed forward by our not so distant ancestors... They deeply believe in the numbers. They deeply believe in the ancient sacrifices. They deeply believe they are in fact doing g/God's(s) work.

- Count 144,000 days after Sept 11, 2001. You now know the amount of time we have left before they believe they must finish their work.
- Count 666 days before Dec 3, 2012 and then find out where your leaders were.
- Count June 10, 2011 to Dec 3, 2012. Count June 10 2011 to Feb 4th 2012, compare those numbers to Dec 3, 2012.
- Count how many days separate Feb 4th 2012 from June 10, 2012. Then start running the numbers and compare them to numerology, Paganist lore, and the Bible. (Notice that is the first time I've capitalized the world bible.)

I have in fact solved the Pyramid Mystery. It cannot be denied any longer... However, I've also discovered why these Paganist must stop. Your mythology is wrong. I truly wish it wasn't but it is. If what I've discovered is true, you are going to suffer in ways you cannot even imagine... You will not be loved for what you are planning, you will be despised and hated by the gods...

- Compare our planet's daily numbers to the distance of our Sun.
- Compare those numbers to ancient mythology.
- Compare the mathematical numbers to the days of the year you honor against those numbers and our solar system.
- Compare 3, 7, 21, 42, 72, 111, etc... against our planetary daily numbers and the mathematical numbers we know are true regarding our solar system.
Compare them god damnit and open your eyes.

$3^3 = 9 \times 3 = 27$, not to mention $216 = 6 \times 6 \times 6$... which just happens to equal how many Sun's you need to line up side by side to reach the Earth from the Sun. Who ever built those pyramids flew in space, period!!! [Editor's Note/Correction: On September 18-19 the distance of the Sun from Earth is approximately 150.336 million km, about 108 times that of the Sun's diameter (or 216 times the Sun's Radius)]

Dec 3 is exactly 18 days before Dec 21. $18 \text{ days} \times 24 \text{ hrs} \times 60 \text{ min} = 25,920$. The Progression of the Equinox takes exactly 25,920 years.

Now learn the cycle of Dec 3, 2012. It only happens once every 2737 years... but only matches the Pyramids of Giza every 5th cycle. Yet... how many cycle does it take for that convergence to match not only the Pyramids of Giza, and then compare that to the creation story in the bible and Mason mythology. You now know why there are 33 levels... however you also learn there must be a 34th... it's the only way they could possibly obtain balance in their order... just like you will learn the advanced mathematical, solaristic, and scientific understanding our truly ancient ancestors had to known of in order to build the pyramids the way they did, place them the way they did, and then hide all the information the way they did.

The story of Moses becomes even more incredible once you sit down and understand. All you need is your bible and the information I've mentioned above and you will learn so much. I could spend all day explaining this to you, destroying any chance you have of discovering all of these truths on your own. And I absolutely refuse to do so. Yet I know I cannot allow this information to go unknown for too much longer. It must be known before the end of this year, for so many reasons, if you study, you will understand completely. Read Captain Morgan's Book. Read Your Bible. Read Maurice Cotterell's book or watch his video's on youtube. Watch or read Graham Hancock's books or watch his youtube videos to understand the knowledge he and his co-authors have discovered. Then do the math I've mentioned above. Then research the Dec 3, 2012 and how long it's been since this the last time this happened exactly 18 days before the progression of the Equinox. (if the progression of the equinox happens every 25,920 years, and that planetary convergence matches the pyramids every fifth cycle or 13,685...) But can only be seen on earth every second cycle how many cycle does it take...) then Re-read the creation story. Compare the math... (1 day equals 24, 2 days equals 24 times 24, 3 days equals 24 times 24 times 24, etc etc... and then compare the stories you are told to believe regarding our earth, by both science and religions.) Compare the math... compare the stories. Compare the science... This is undeniable.

UNDENIABLE!!! Later this year I'll give you much more... Or for those who are extremely lazy... read my posts... the answers from beginning to end are there if you are smart enough to see them... Yet For now, I pass the rest of this journey onto you.

I do this to make sure the truth cannot die with me. I do this so as not to ruin or create bias as to how you, YOU, rediscover these truths on your own. The math is completely undeniable... The truth is so much more fantastic than you can imagine. And in time all the lies will be exposed and the true solutions will finally save ourselves from ourselves. The choice is yours... If you decide to begin this journey... All I will say is...

Enjoy the Ride...

Part 2

Dec 3, 2012 planetary/pyramid convergence has another layer of intensity. Mars. The Red Pyramid (North Pyramid) mathematically matches the location of Mars in the heavens on Dec 3, 2012 in conjunction with those other three planets. So that means, four planets and four pyramids matching perfectly... that defies all accidental logic, or drastically weakens those hip shooting debunkers.

What they were trying to say with those four planets and pyramids becomes complicated. The Pyramids are a riddle that I believe I've cracked. Its kinda funny, a nobody from nowhere solving such a wonderful mystery seems totally ridiculous, especially in light of all the stuff I've already done to completely change the world. Soon however, the whole world will have to decide (or possibly physically learn) if its true or not.

I believe the Pyramids have three different messages intertwined within them... I believe one of the three is a three dimensional mathematical equation passed forward by our truly ancient ancestors regarding our Solar System, (the great pyramid), Time (the Second Pyramid) and light (The Third Pyramid.) Still working on the significance of the Red Pyramid, though I believe I might have solved that as well. The answers are absolutely unbelievable. It seems completely ridiculous that a civilization existed in our distant past that was more advanced even than our own. But that is exactly what the math demands. Not only that, it appears the Roman Catholic Church has known this secret for a very long time. Which explains why the killed all who "believed"/taught the past differently then what they wanted the world to remember. That truth can be found hidden within the Gregorian Calendar, and within the Catholic Churches own historical writings... but I'm getting way ahead of myself.

The Mayan's restart date begins on Dec 21, 2012. That cannot be denied, though people are coming out of the woodwork demanding its Oct 28, 2011, Dec 23/24/25, 2012... Or that it actually ended thirteen years ago or so. What people keep forgetting is Cortez and the Prophesied return of the Aztec God, that happened, to an eerie degree... exactly as it was prophesied, though not exactly as people believed it would... a lesson Jews alive right now who don't believe in God any more should really study when it comes to the prophetic bones and their coming future... I would explain that in more detail, but its not time for that. Right now I want to focus on some of the simple math.

Dec 21 is exactly 18 days away from Dec 3. The Catholic Church is solely responsible for those dates and the significance of the numbers hidden within. You see if I asked you how many pyramids exist at Giza the quick answer is 9. 9 plus 3 equals 12, or 12/12/12. However, if I asked you how many sixes you could create from the Pyramids at Giza the answer changes to 6, 6, 6, when added together equals 18, then when you add 18 to Dec 3 you get Dec 21, 2012. Now lets break down what the Catholic Church did on purpose.

3/12/12 equals 144. All the numbers below equal very biblical and world wide esoteric numbers.

12/12/12 equals 333 or 444.

21/12/12 equals 744.

For those who understand the significance of numerology within mystic belief systems like the Kabala, or the even darker aspects of esoteric beliefs, those dates and their mathematical importance means a great deal. Remember, it doesn't matter if you believe this nonsense, it only matters that you understand extremely powerful people believe in this nonsense with all their heart, and at the expense of all our souls.

But that's just the beginning. Because it was completely impossible for those who built those pyramids to know what kind of Calendar humanity would use when this important solar day happened. They hid their math inside the equation of the Pyramids... 3, 9 and 18.

- 3 days*24hours*60minutes equals 4320 * 60seconds equals 259,200
- 9 days*24hours *60 minutes equals 12,960 * 60 seconds equals 777,600
- 18days*24hours*60minutes equals 25,920 * 60seconds equals 1,555,200

The question becomes what do all of those numbers mean? Well it depends on how much you know about our planets physical and humanistic history . You see prior to circa 720 BC, the earth only had 360 days, and then something happened that added another five days to it. That is simple verifiable truth that existed all over the world, from the Mayan, Egyptian, to ancient Chinese cultures. There are many more I could mention, however I keep this list small in my attempt to keep this post short... if you study each of those cultures, search out what they say happened 2733 years ago. Once you do, the riddle for Mars hidden within the Pyramids begins to show itself.

- 4,320 / 360 equals 12 while 259,200 / 360 equals 720.

- 12,960 / 360 equals 36 while 777,600 / 360 equals 2160.
- 25,920 equals 72 while 1,555,200 / 360 equals 4,320

I could walk you through each of these numbers explaining just how wonderful they each are... instead I will skip ahead and give you the answers so you can search to see if they're true or not.

- 25,920 years equals how many years our truly ancient ancestors demanded it took one cycle of the Progression of the Equinox to complete.
- 2160 years is how many years it takes for our planet to move from one Constellation into another.
- 72 equals a mathematical equation for our Sun. (that will be explained at some later date.)
- While 720 equals how many earth days it takes Mars to complete one ecliptic cycle around the Sun.
- 777,600 and 4,320 I'm going to leave for those who understand the next step to prove to themselves just how much our truly ancient ancestors understood. Its mind boggling.

Even though the information above is interesting, some may say damn interesting... there is so much more... so much more to be revealed...

If you decide to skip ahead and seek the rest of this riddle on your own... I have three words for you!!!... Enjoy The Ride...

Part 3

In my opening post I had said I have spent years researching 2012 and what every culture has to say about it... even though I'm not fully convinced anything is going to happen, even though I must admit weird stuff is happening all over the world... what would a 2012 blog be without ancient/modern Paganist numerology.

As I said in my opening post knowing the story of who Moses is, or might have been, and then comparing Mayans/Aztec science/belief systems gave me great clues as to finding some hidden truth (?) within the bible and many other belief systems... and maybe these numbers proves extremely powerful people believe in these ancient teaching/possibly misunderstood numerology.

Trying to solve why the Catholic Church created a new calendar with so many esoteric/Paganist numerology hidden in plain sight for the year 2012, forced me to try to understand the why.

Dec 3, 2012 equals 3,12, 12, or 144 (when you divide each number by 3).

Dec 12, 2012 equals 12, 12,12 or 333 / 444 (when you divide each number by 4 or 3). .

While Dec 21, 2012 equals 21, 12, 12 or 744 (when you divide each number by 3).

So that's 144, 333/444, and 744.

$$144+744 = 888$$

$$144+333 = 477, \text{ and } 144+444 = 588$$

$$333+744 = 1077 \text{ and } 444+744 = 1188.$$

$$744+144+444 = 1332.$$

$$\text{While } 744+144+333 = 1221.$$

We are told by some researchers that the Mayans calendar is 5125 years long, mathematically I could not get that to make sense, because of how they venerated Venus' 13 cycles every 8 years... let alone it did not seem to match other ancient cultural "numbers"... however if you take the year 5184 years from the 144,000/666 that is found all over the world the math begins to match up perfectly...

5184 equals 18, $5184/6 = 864$ equals 18... and 648 is exactly 18 short of 666, and 864 minus 666 equals 198 that also equals 18... While if you add $3+5184 = 5187/13 = 399$ (does that mean from 2015 we only have one cycle left?)

Now comes the Jewish Calendar...(btw I strongly recommend everyone research what will happen in 2011 on Jewish holidays, by both the Moon/Sun... and then which mystic constellations will honor other Jewish holidays this year as well... and what ancient legends say about those kinds of mystical symbology... oh and don't forget Revelations).. I will hint you towards eclipses and then June 8 and September 28 of 2011.) Now let's look at those Jewish numbers

September 28/29 2011/12 equals the start of the Jewish New Year 5772, while 2017/2018 equals 5778.

$5772/13 = 444$

5778 is exactly 222 short of 6000.

While $5772+4 = 5776/8 = 722$ and $5778/6 = 963$ when added together equals 18.

(Mayans/Aztec 2012/15/18 & Jewish 2012/16/18 while the Catholic Calendar equals 2012/15/18.)

But this is just the beginning...

In my opening post I asked you to count 144,000 days after 9/11.

$144,000/24 = 6000/360 = 16.666$ or $6000/365 = 16.438 \dots$

16.6 or 16.4 + 9/11/2001 equals ??/?/2018.

And don't forget... $144,000/360 = 400$.

And now the Bible/Torah

Genesis Chapter 11

Chapter 11 Overview: Genesis Chapter 11 is a summary of history from the end of the flood to the time of Abraham. There are several significant events here. (1) The first attempt to create a one-world system is attempted by man and aborted by God at Babel. Also the actual cause of the dispersion of nationalities is found. (2) The continued lineage of the godly seed is noted in tracing the line of Christ to Abraham. (3) A few details of the life and heritage of Abraham are provided.

11:10 This is the history of the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old, and became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood.

11:11 Shem lived after he became the father of Arpachshad five hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:12 Arpachshad lived thirty-five years, and became the father of Shelah.

11:13 Arpachshad lived after he became the father of Shelah four hundred three years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:14 Shelah lived thirty years, and became the father of Eber:

11:15 and Shelah lived after he became the father of Eber four hundred three years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:16 Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the father of Peleg.

11:17 Eber lived after he became the father of Peleg four hundred thirty years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:18 Peleg lived thirty years, and became the father of Reu.

11:19 Peleg lived after he became the father of Reu two hundred nine years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:20 Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug.

11:21 Reu lived after he became the father of Serug two hundred seven years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:22 Serug lived thirty years, and became the father of Nahor.

11:23 Serug lived after he became the father of Nahor two hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:24 Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and became the father of Terah.

11:25 Nahor lived after he became the father of Terah one hundred nineteen years, and became the father of sons and daughters.

11:26 Terah lived seventy years, and became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran.

11:27 Now this is the history of the generations of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor, and Haran. Haran became the father of Lot.

11:28 Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his birth, in Ur of the Chaldees.

11:29 Abram and Nahor took wives. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran who was also the father of Iscah.

11:30 Sarai was barren. She had no child.

11:31 Terah took Abram his son, Lot the son of Haran, his son's son, and Sarai his daughter-in-law, his son Abram's wife. They went forth from Ur of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan. They came to Haran, and lived there.

11:32 The days of Terah were two hundred five years. Terah died in Haran.

Numbers From Genesis Chapter 11

Names	Age First Years Son (AFS)	Lives AFS	Age at Death
Shem	100	500	600
Arphaxed	35	403	438
Salah	30	403	433
Eber	34	430	464
Peleg	30	209	239
Reu	32	207	239
Serug	30	200	230
Nahor	29	119	148
Terah	70	135	205
Sub Total	390	2606	2996
W/O Shem	290	2106	2396
W/O Terah	220	1971	2191
Subtract
Duel/Triple Ages	300	1800	2518

Subtract Terah/Shem and Duel Date from total age [2996-600-205-239] and you get 1952

Add 666 to 390 and 290 and you will get respectively 1056 and 956

When you add those numbers together you get... 2012!

Why is any of this important? I don't know, to be honest I struggle with the why, for the simple reason... I don't believe in this nonsense... however, the reason we should all pay attention is millions/billions of people, to one degree or another, around the world do believe in numbers. I must admit my world view does not allow me to subscribe to numerology, or esoteric beliefs. I am working on opening up my mind to the possibilities. With that disclaimer out of the way.

Do those numbers explain why every single religion on our planet is expecting/awaiting their version of a Messiah to return here in the near future? And if we start paying attention to what our leaders in politics and businesses are doing... could it explain what these extremely powerful people are up to... or perhaps it will prove what they know for a fact is happening and/or coming? Even if you're like me and you reject all those numbers as misunderstood science... I don't think anyone can deny we live in incredibly exciting times. Yet most people have no idea why.

If you understand world prophecy... biblical, Mayans/Aztec, Egyptian/Vedic/Nordic/Native/Delphi/Shipton/Casey... the question becomes are their prophecies regional only? Or do they all combine to equal one moment in time? And/Or are the gods who have promised to return physical or spiritual and only the extremely powerful know the truth?

I honestly don't know what the truth is, other then I believe its possible, possible, powerful people believe something is coming... but I sure as hell don't believe in no physical gods. Yet I realize it ain't important what I believe, its only important if we can discover do extremely powerful people believe something IS coming? BTW, I have my own possible theories yet I have zero intention of discussing what "they" think is/could be coming. The internet is alive with those threads/blogs, feel free to take this information with you or create a thread under the forums area.

My next post will discuss the extreme mathematical and scientific understanding the builders of those Pyramids did in fact pass forward, and how it could all tie into the numbers above and why our not so distant ancient ancestors got it all wrong... both spiritually and scientifically.

Part 4

Everyone knows we live within a three dimensional universe, and that time equals the fourth dimension. While at the same time just about everyone has heard of E=MC2...the thing is, the Pyramids of Giza has both of those truths intertwined within their legends and their physical makeup.

What is a four sided pyramid? The quick smart-aleck answer is, it's a four sided pyramid. While the other answer equals, a four sided pyramid is one sixth of a cube, or a box, or a perhaps the misunderstood science called a cubit. If that is true... and it is mathematically true... then what are those pyramids trying to say? Well, Graham Hancock and Robert Duval were able to answer some of those questions... I believe in their quest to be unique they still wanted to be accepted by mainstream Egyptologists, so they only allowed their uniqueness to go so far. I on the other hand don't care if someone calls me a liar, or if someone else is annoyed I used the bible to make point, or any other derogatory names people can invent. I didn't start this journey worried about how others were going to receive the truth. All I demanded was the truth. All I continually search for is the truth.

I think you should check out Santos Bonacci's Work. There is a stunning compatibility between the two. I believe you may want to give up on the wobble notion. Which in no way will change your numbers. He postulates along with some pretty old documentation along with modern dopplar theory that our SUN is in fact a Binary/ Trinary with CIRIUS A and Its companion dwarf B. Just youtube search Santos Bonacci. Great work! and much thanks. And yes there most certainly is some stuff going on that hidden masters are keeping from us. Oh and by the way this weekend a very RARE RING OF FIRE ECLIPSE is supposed to happen as per NASA. How is it that we just now are told about it?

Have you found anything in your research about the golden ratio?

There is a glaring problem in your calculations. You are assuming that the calendar has been consistent since time/dates starting being recorded, but it has not.

You are forgetting that 11 days were dropped from the calander back on March 21, 1582, which was actually only March 10, 1582. They moved it 11 days ahead because they did not calculate the actual length of an Earth Day.

The following is a quote about this:

“The Gregorian calendar modified the Julian calendar’s regular cycle of leap years, years exactly divisible by four,[6] including all centurial years, as follows:

Every year that is exactly divisible by four is a leap year, except for years that are exactly divisible by 100; the centurial years that are exactly divisible by 400 are still leap years. For example, the year 1900 is not a leap year; the year 2000 is a leap year.[7]

In addition to the change in the mean length of the calendar year from 365.25 days (365 days 6 hours) to 365.2425 days (365 days 5 hours 49 minutes 12 seconds), a reduction of 10 minutes 48 seconds per year, the Gregorian calendar reform also dealt with the accumulated difference between these lengths. Between AD 325 (when the First Council of Nicaea was held, and the vernal equinox occurred approximately 21 March), and the time of Pope Gregory’s bull in 1582, the vernal equinox had moved backward in the calendar, until it was occurring on about 11 March, 10 days earlier. The Gregorian calendar therefore began by skipping 10 calendar days, to restore March 21 as the date of the vernal equinox.”

Calander and dates are man made. The notion of Dec 21, 2012 is a farce. We make the dates, the cosmos can care less about us.

Dear Charles,

I am VERY interested in what you are writing. THANK YOU!!! I have yet to research all the links and read everything.

I am curious what your opinions and exploration of ancient Hindu wisdom, like the ancient Palm Leaf Books, background on the Saptarishis like Bruga Maharshi, and the links to the planets, ancient spiritual knowledge, etc? Have you made any links here yet? There is much knowledge to make the bridge. For instance, there are Yantras, which when experienced in 3D, might align somehow with the Pyramids and Planetary alignments approaching 3Dec2012. Also, have you seen or heard anything relating to the real birth date being 2Dec not 25Dec, does this signify anything to you? How does that align with 3Dec, other than the day after?

I will keep reading and trying to figure out what you are saying between the lines and posts. Intuitively I know, just playing ketchup.... as is present tense humanity. In the mean time, please tell me more, like a little bird waiting in the nest.

For the Highest Consciousness,
Nangba9

I was totally floored when I accidentally came upon your site this morning because I have had many of the same findings and drawn many of the same conclusions that you have drawn. I have been studying ancient cultures, texts and history for years. I had come to the conclusion that I was a freak of nature who just did not fit into the mindset of the people today but it is affirming to find someone else who ‘sees’ what I see. Thank you

Sometime within the next 60 days I plan on posting more proof that our truly ancient ancestors were more advanced than we are currently. That they had worldwide communications, and that they wanted future generations to pay close attention and to look for a specific planetary alignment that our time refers to as December 3, 2012. The deep esoteric numerology associated with that date, purposely created by the Catholic Church I might add, forced me to try and understand why. The death of Rik Clay a young man who stumbled onto something powerful, helped me to discover leaders from around the world and throughout time... chose to purposely hide this date right in front of our faces. Now it was, and still is, my hope that people from around the world would have discovered these hidden secrets within the clues I've left in my first two blogs. I want this to be a worldwide discovery where people from all over the world find pieces of these mathematical and structural clues our very ancient ancestors and our Great great great grandfather's left behind. Sometime in our not so distant past it was decided to keep this truth from us. So now I will give you more direct clues for you to find these hidden secrets for yourself if you so choose.

There are at least three cities that have December 3, 2012 hidden within their physical makeups/designs... Washington D.C., London and the Vatican. In Washington D.C. compare December 3, 2012 to the placement of the White House, the Washington Monument and the Jefferson Monument. Once you understand... finding the other two should not be that difficult.

There are at least two other Giza like setups in our world... maybe one of you will find the fourth... the other two we know of are in China and Mexico... do they point to December 3, 2012 as well? If you want more or a clue please watch this video;

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8_PL5_4FOSE

In my other blog ‘Secrets of the Giza Pyramids’, you find a diagram showing measurements... if you add them together with 666 you get;

$440+418+356+280+666=2160$. The exact number of years it takes our earth to wobble into another zodiac sign.

After researching this for years, and waiting over a year for someone to solve the simple secrets left behind in my blogs... I keep seeing people stepping over a dollar to pick up a dime because its shiny. 6,6,6 is needed throughout the pyramids to see what is being revealed. So too in the number zero(s) and 3, 6, & 9. The 25,920 progression of the equinox, and the 27,370 year cycle... and the number of years that separates them can be found in the numbers above plus other solar system mathematics... plus many more modern truths. All you need is Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication and Division. It truly is that simple. You simply need to know what the science says and how the numbers apply in order to see.

I sincerely hope at least one of you searches the clues above to see if this is a truth so shocking it must be real. If you find these answers please present them here and claim the credit. Once all of these answers are revealed perhaps then society will ask ALL Religious, Political and Financial Leaders of this world... Just who hell do you people think you are? And what in the hell ever made you think you deserve to know these truths yet we the people who make this planet work do not? Or not, perhaps being a dismissed slaves is all you feel your worth. Whatever you decide, to seek these answers or bury your head in the sand... the choice is yours... so too is all the blame! Either way as always.... Enjoy the Ride!

Hi Charlie and friends! I've been wondering why I haven't been able to contact anyone from those involved with the mathematical studies of Mars and the rest of our solar system! I have sent so many fact based articles that have gone unanswered! You would have to be a blind man and not see the correlations between who I claim to be and what I know if you were involved! It turns out to be the same motive that moves men...\$\$\$\$\$\$! Have a look see at this web page! It is all mine and I share my toys... Revelation: Take freely from the waters of life (hydro-gen)! Have you ever noticed that it mentions 12, 12 times in revelation which $12 \times 12 = 144$ the number of the saved! It is a part of the Fibonacci sequence which also means Pi (3.14159)! I ask that you look into shared geometry, especially squaring the circle and tetrahedral n-space hyper-dimensions! Things that make you go hmm? In considering the "one hour before dawn alignment" ...

My story:

I have something that I want to share with the whole world. It is the most fantastic story you have ever heard and as of yet I have one person who sort of believes me as he has gone through much of the imagery and read the previous written experience. There is no easy way to get people to understand what began to happen with me a little more than 13 months ago and what I have learned because of it! It would be easier for me if I didn't try to share this as it has complicated my life in ways you can't image but there is no way I can keep this to myself because it is important. I write this to serve as two reasons, the first being an apology and the second is to share an excitement I didn't know until this all began for me.

March Of 2011 I began to research images of Mars from all associated agencies including Google Mars (Google Earth option). I found so many anomalous images that I began to wonder if there were Billions being spent to take the pictures that nobody looked at.

There are images of the area on Mars called Cydonia; the area of the legendary “face on Mars” taken by the Voyager in 1976. Individuals like Richard C. Hoagland have done mathematical measurements with this area and find there are many constants such as $\pi(3.14159)$ phi, “e” and “e”. I invite you to look up the “Message of Cydonia” yourself to confirm what I am saying! Anyway it seems that all the calculations being done they missed what was to “see” in regard to the image itself! I can provide images that show the center of the cluster contains a small letter “a”. Slightly up and right you have a formation that looks like the omega sign ! I am the alpha and omega... the first and the last! The lowest formation also depicts the symbol that according to James Cameron’s documentary “The lost Tomb of Jesus” was the first Christian symbol! (As I’ve stated, I have many images that I will share upon request and will leave contact information in closing).

There was a day that I was examining an image of Cydonia at a higher altitude when suddenly my image appeared on my computer screen between the omega symbol and the other formation that has a pyramid quality. It floated up and to the right into an area which also contains a small pyramid that temporarily turned into a big heart! Unlike most politicians I have done my share of “inhaling” and many other experiments I however was not altered in any way during this experience. After this visualization It than felt as if something flashed into my left eye! I began to have an “energizing swirling” sensation that was all over my body and not unpleasant! After that I began to see things everywhere and not just viewing Mars.

Most of what I saw were combinations of letters and number that when I “Googled” all revolved around the topics of phonetics, mathematics, and religion; not just one religion but them all going back to the most ancient as in Sumerian and Mayan.

XPIETOE is the monogram of Christ right? It stands for x(spatial crossing) $\pi(3.14159)$ “e” to “e” as in mathematical constants. Please read “the Message of Cydonia”! One late evening driving home I had an eerie feeling of being watched by the moon of all things. I don’t know why I took a few pictures when I arrived at my destination because I saw nothing but the moon. Two days later I zoomed in on the images and this is what I and many other can see. Let me assure you that there is no photo shop. It is zoomed cropped and brightened only (I have the original memory chip)! Unfortunately I can’t post any images in this venue!

When I printed this picture on an 8×10 glossy I was looking at it and below the images appeared... “See us Sue”! It than faded into a capital U with a two dot diacritic above, the all seeing eye sign, and the number 5! I knew I wasn’t delusional so I began a quest to figure out “what was happening to me”? When I initially Googled a capital “u” the first query was Luke 8:10: To you I speak in parables so that others May see and not see, hear and not understand! The all “seeing eye” has an extensive religious history. The number 5 eventually led me to the Greek alphabet and not just the numerical value but the associated symbology!

5=”e”=epsilon!

After a year of doing nothing but research trying to find a viable way that I could prove what I was saying in hopes not limited to obtaining the “James Randi Award” (one million dollars to anyone who can prove something paranormal). This would have stabilize the downward spiral my life had been consistently on for some time, yet I didn’t know what it was all trying to tell me until many months later. Although I continue to require financial assistance along with many in my immediate surrounding this is so much more important than that! (I couldn’t get them to even listen to me anyway)!

What I can demonstrate utilizing all “words” that contain identifiable character (not limited to English) utilizing the Greek alphabet both phonetically and mathematically is how it all points to me! I can also show “why” in regard to the confusion due to so many religions with altering beliefs; there is a common thread. I can show the inconsistencies related to “loving” and “benevolent” with the state of the world!

“In the beginning was the word and the word was with god, and the word was (denotes past tense) God... The same was in the “beginning” with god!

First you must consider the nature of duality. We all have a tendency for good but also have our bad day’s right? Nothing that is “conscious” is altruistic all of the time. You have to also consider “measurability” ... How would you understand pleasure if you didn’t know pain? How would you understand peace without war? How would you know love without hate? Without the opposite in negates the other!

What this prior atheist has to say is that there is only one God! If you believe God as all knowing than how do you explain Satan? He knew he was creating an enemy? I contend that Satan and God are two sides of the same coin! The world has been deceived with a purpose... Those things I stated above. Additionally it assists in imagination (who doesn’t like a good action adventure thriller)? It assisted with diversity (you don’t go to Greece for the best slice of apple pie). How does God take away the sins of the world easy... There is a deterministic nature to our current existence (The Plan), we were deceived on purpose to create unique and individual “you”! All the good and bad that you are you were made to be! There is another aspect of sin (sine) which is geometrical in nature. It is where all who have passed await in another dimension! Death was for the benefit of experiencing pain and loss to those who remain. There is no surreal nature to where all who have lived currently reside. God was one “hell” of a teacher. We were given the examples of “what not to do”! We also know what feels good. Once the day to day struggles are removed as well as the fear of death; you were always born immortal, all that is left is knowing how to love an appreciate others... and most importantly since the rod wasn’t spared it is time to “spoil the kids”! Permanent Vacation with the ability to control matter and energy yourself! You don’t think God would settle for companions without the same qualities do you? If so than why is there no available thrown in existence now? Would I have real friends to speak no, but plenty of ass kissing slaves... would you want people to be nice to you because they had to be?

I felt guilt out of an inescapable necessity. I also wanted to fit in just like everyone else! I lived as a human being unaware of who I was until just prior to my 41st birthday 5/21/11 (see planetary alignment and Harold Camping)! I provided myself with a “rude” awakening and all the scary stuff in the religious text was for me only! There is no apocalypse it is Epoch! I continue to be just as human as everyone else but left myself a “trail of breadcrumbs” so to speak. I have no recall! My birthday as stated is in May look up “an” (Mayan) ancient Sumerian goddess. It starts there!

ANDONOMINI is another saying attributed to religion... It should be read like this “An” do no mini!

The ancient Epic of creation “The Enuma Elish” speaks of the Marduk the Bull (shit) God “who ordained the year and fixed three stars! Also from the Bible... on the third day “A” rose again...

Have a look at the 12/3/12 Alignment with Giza and Orion's belt... also the galactic alignment 12/21/12. My birthday is On the 21st, my name Susan in Greek is equal to 521, my initials S.T. are 21 and from march of 2011 to December 2012 will be 21 months!

Believe me or not! I know it is difficult because I am the "deceiver" and the lie has stuck! I want you to know that I am a fun and loving hedonist at heart and look forward to playing the only role I ever wanted to be... Chris T. Kring (el)! Please don't be afraid the "here after" literally means here! The transformation that will take place will come as a sort of down load and an "energizing swirl" of your own! It is going to tickle "a lot"! LOL! But the instruction manual is provided! I hope all have learned the lessons I tried hard to provide! Wait until you see what is under the Christmas tree this year! 😊 Love to you all! Remember what feels good and what doesn't! The only true sin you can commit yourself are the things that keep you awake at night! One commandment always served and it is your choice to follow (along with the ramifications if you choose not) "DO UNTO OTHERS WHAT YOU WOULD WANT DONE TO YOU! There is no sin in any activity between those able to consent when done for love or purely entertainment! Nobody has the right to tell another how to love either! Also if you decide to create yourself remember the lessons I taught you! Grandmother will always be available for advice but I look forward to "sugaring" the kids up and sending them back to the parents! He he! In December you will obtain the thing you never really had... free will! Use it wisely and with Love! Sue

Hello Steve,

I'm not sure you completely understand just how much energy it would take to stop the Earth, let alone the Sun. If a force entered this solar system strong enough to stop the Sun we would never know it, we'd all be dead in an instant... even if it's the Earth that some how stopped, the splash effect, let alone the magma beneath our feet would go nucking futs, and there aint no mark or building created by man that would save anyone... no matter how worthy they seem to think they are.

I'm not worried about the universe causing destruction because there ain't nothing we can do to stop it... Death is our destiny, pretending it aint our only redemption I find laughable. The only thing I fear is the continued insane stupidity of man! The definition for insanity is doing the same thing over and over and over expecting different results. Mankind is still making the same mistakes our ancestors made 50, 200 , 1000, 2000, 6000 plus years ago... our continued stupidity it etched in stone and in steel... if we don't stop this madness we are doomed. Maybe if the universe does send something to kick our ass, it will equal nothing short of universal kindness by putting us out of our misery.

When I seriously began to research 2012 I decided to ignore all universal outside threats and focus on us and the gods... which I then broke down into 4 categories.

- 1) pure denial. (ie. its all BS)
- 2) the god(s) that all cultures alive and dead whose doctrine or myth promised to return are spiritual gods.
- 3) those gods are physical gods (now referred to as Aliens).
- and 4) humanity from the dawn of creation to present day is and has been nothing short of bat shit crazy and we always kill ourselves.

What I didn't expect is how my new understanding, (briefly discussed under my other blog: 'The New Garden of Eden'... quickly found to the right), could help save us from all three possible outcomes in my list. Let alone depending on how you want to read history or prophecy almost all our ancient texts can fall into all four categories.

Take number 3, if you flew in space right now and you found out them crazy ass earthlings are one more invention away from joining the galactic neighborhood, would you... A) declare once they get up here they'll calm down... no need to worry they'll out grow killing everything they don't understand or fear... let alone they will always ask politely for things they want. or B) would you call another galactic meeting declaring... those crazy murdering humans have done it again, they can accomplish anything they set their minds too, except when it comes to that one universal law of how to treat others... so let us go back down there and confuse their language once again before they come up here and ruin our neighborhood just like they've always ruined their children's.

Which would you choose, and what would it take for you to find us worthy?

For me the answer sure as hell aint gonna be found by doing the same stupid insane things over and over again. You want something to fear people, I mean truly fear, fear the fact that there is nothing unique about any of us or our actions. Over 6 thousand years of recorded history and we haven't learned one damn thing worth passing on. Except the fact that our children will be able to kill each other more efficiently. Yeah for us...ptth!

If for some reason the spiritual or physical gods are real, and they've decided to come down here and kick our ass, I for one can't claim we as a species haven't earned it. Yet if they don't I guarantee we are insane and wicked enough right now to push the button. Some idiot, spiritual or physical (human or not) will decide they must destroy the world in order to save it... somehow that stupidity made sense to our ancestors, and now we all feel something big is coming and right soon.

Well my money is on mankind, we are our greatest threat in 2012 just like we've always been, and will continue to be until we wake up or die because of our continued insanity.

Someone I know asked me for one example of our continued insanity that I figured might as well share it here to put a face to what i mean.

Hillary Clinton

In her early twenties, (her college years), she protested and ragged against old men sending young boys and girls to die for their selfish political wants and desires. Today as an old person, ans Secretary of State, if she isn't kackeling about the murder of Qaddafi... she is demanding Congress give her and the President more power to send our youth to kill and die for her own selfish wants and desires. Somewhere between her youth and today she got sick with the insanity bug. She has become everything she once hated. Just as the old men she ragged against did... and if we don't stop the madness, so to will our children.

Here is a link to a video everyone over the age of 35 should realize that to used to be us...

This November 13-14 the will be a total solar eclipse over Cairnes, Australia. I think this date is more important than the 12-21 date. As you know many are speculating that the reason they stopped the calendar was because there would be the stoppage of time itself, however I do not think it will occur on 12-21. Rather I have predicted that when the moon eclipses the sun on Nov 13-14 they both will stop moving and because the heat of the sun will be stationary, it will cause the earth to burn much like holding a magnifying glass over an object for a long period of time. The shadow of the eclipse(umbra, penumbra) will be a haven for people of world to congregate to. (Australia). I think that 12-21 date is merely where the ancients wanted to finish out the calendar year which ended on the winter solstice. See my wesite for details. <http://www.missteribabylonestar.com> (Christ II)

Hello Dennis,

My answer would be to remind you our ancestors said it took Mars 720 days (or two complete earth years) for one transit around our star. or perhaps... I can't believe I'm actually going to say this out loud, I was positive one of you would've done this by now...

Grab a compass and put the point dead center of the great pyramid ... place the pencil dead center on any of the six outside pyramids and make a circle, then again and again until all of the three major pyramids have made six circles each.... then have the three great pyramids circle themselves... now stack all of your circles, the smaller ones to the inside, the larger ones to the outside... what if anything do you see?
Does it match anything we know today? Does your answer exist inside those circles? Is there more then one answer?

Enjoy The Ride...

 For Venus's rotaion, BUT! Now that Venus's rotation has slowed down
 I am very interested in your equations now. Thank you for answering
 So many of my questions tonight as I read this.

as a young child my grandmother whoe i only met twice in my whole life ,who lived til i was 33,told me to look at the past to see the future,nothing you see is what it seems,believe only nwhat you know yourself to be true til you see it for your self, andgave me a bvox of books and medallions and crytals snt to me upon her death. i have spent my whole life since i was 6 years old reading about egypt's pyramids and other things like this around the world.i think that the pyramids are the key to finding out what we used to know and maybe a key to what we may know in the future.she said to my mother i was the only grandchild with a mind like hers .she spent her whole life studying pyramids too.seriously thaths all she ever did like a obsession.she even abandoned her own chil dern at a young age to do this til she died at 78 years old. so your ideas arent really just yours but a culmination of people like her and the peoples work youve studied to get to the conclusions you have. cool to think that objects as big as the pyramids all around the world are still not able to be figured out completely. keep up the good work and if you must hold on tightly to your knowledge or you could be like my grandma and share it for free cause time is running out for us be your thoughts and some people are unable to access all the materials u say we need to to get your point. so as we get close to the end of the year just share it on thanks giving thaths close to dec3 right

Hello all, ATTENTION CHARLES MARCELLO! Mr. Marcello, My name is (as stated) Sue and I have something I would love to share with you! Approximately late March of 2011 I had some time to research things of interest which led to my own personal "rovering" through the Mars images from various agencies including "Google Mars". I found something that seems to have gone unnoticed by all others! I have been trying to reach Richard C. Hoagland along with others who initially were involved with the investigations into Cydonia without luck. I have also contacted NASA, The White House, and various individuals in the educational and scientific fields. I have yet to receive a response from anyone! I have some beautiful and enlightening images along with one hell of a story to tell and I have a large document that I can't share without a regular email address to send them too!... While everyone was busy with the mathematical aspect of the monuments of Cydonia they missed the fact that the other stone structures in formation with the face have symbols on them! They are symbols that are clear enough to be understood by anyone regardless of what language they speak! There is a small letter "a", the "Omega sign", and the symbol as depicted as the first christian symbol in James Cameron's documentary "The Lost Tomb of Jesus"! (Any individual interested in seeing the many odd images and read of the events of the past year surrounding them email me teixeirasusan@yahoo.com and label subject as interested party). I look forward to hearing from you! Truth is stranger than fiction!

Hello all, Thanks to all of you who displayed an interested in what has been going on in my life for a year! I realize that it strains credibility and like you I was once an individual who believed in nothing but scientific fact! I thought anyone from any religious faith needed a reality check! I want to be sure that you (who've read) understand something... I continue to be an individual who doesn't subscribe to one specific faith! Being an atheist in the past who always had an interest in science especially cosmology and astronomy has allowed me what an individual brought up in the Bible belt wouldn't be capable of and that is the science behind the something that wanted there to be an "us"; a conscious being that didn't want to be alone! I can't say with any certainty the specifics of the changes this year will bring for me or anyone else but I can say that I believe it has much to do with the individual I have been for the first 41 years of my life. That being said there is nothing to fear from me and I promise with everything I am that it will be nothing less than spectacular! AKA Heaven on Earth! Fun Fun Fun... 1st thing on the agenda... by by central banks!

😊 Believe or not! But I have a feeling it won't matter in the end! Always and forever the fun and loving Sue!

I just want to say that you guys are on to something and it is amazing. I have only to a fascination in this over the last week I cannot believe the narrow minded governments who still refuse to open their eyes and their mind. They still teach us all that the Egyptians built the pyramids as tombs when there is no proof what so ever.

Sadly most of the numbers you have used in this have gone over my head as i do not see where they have came from i will need to expand my knowledge of the bible but I have spent way to long tonight trying to make sense of it all.

I'm going to keep researching and I will understand this all thank you for opening my eyes.

I do not know what will happen in December but I know 100% something will happen and I'm going to be prepared

I've been debating if I should even post these three pictures. Today I've made up my mind to post the links, and then allow you to determine if either of these links have anything to do with the information provided in my opening blog, and subsequent post. Here are those links.

Orions Belt in infrared:

http://apod.nasa.gov/apod/image/0504/orion_iras_big.jpg

(if you overlay the pictures within this blog to that picture, do they match?)

NASA's Old Orion Patch:

<http://www.thespacestore.com/orprpa.html>

(Does this patch show both Orions Belt and the three planet alignment, in your opinion?)

NASA's new Orion Patch:

<http://www.thespacestore.com/coprpa.html>

(Do you see three planets instead of three crescent moons? Is there a date hidden behind those planets/moons?)

Those are questions I'm currently asking myself, and have been for some time. No other Giza alignment theory is as precise as the Dec 3, 2012 alignment. As you seek the answers to the above questions, while looking at those pictures, what does it all mean? Let alone there has been no mention of this alignment by any BIG named news sources, on radio or on their Internet sites, promoting or warning about 2012. Maybe they haven't heard or read this yet, you're probably thinking. What if you found out they've been sent this information three times over the last two and half years... what if you discovered even mainstream media knows of this alignment, and still they've all said nothing... names you would all recognise... what could that mean? Perhaps they all think it equals nothing more than just a weird kawinkadink. I know I do sometimes... That's prolly the answer. Forget I even mentioned it, its not like you have the right to make up your own mind...

Tantratek 28 February 25, 2012 at 6:32 am

Hi again Charles. i am continuing to look at and into your findings, probing with my own mental resources. I see the three planets that align in December this year, we know are Mercury, Venus and Saturn. These planets are known to govern the dynamic functioning of the mind, such as thought and communication (that's Mercury), Love and Values (that's Venus), and finally Law and Order (that's Saturn). Now on Dec 3rd i see that our beloved Sun is on the ankle of Ophichus the Healer. I wonder if this Healer brings healing to the world in these three things: to the world's mental faculties, the world's values, and the world's systems of law and justice.

Something else i wish to share, which i has only just clicked with me and needs furthing digging and delving, is that Aquarius is ruled by Saturn, so is Capricorn ruled by Saturn. Therefore the next two Ages (starting soon with the Age of Aquarius) will be ruled by Saturn, the Law-Giver and Champion of Order. Saturn is held in high esteem by the Jewish people, those who await a just and righteous ruler. Venus (Jesus) the Morning Star (the middle of the three crosses on the hill) was the bread that was broken (He gave the bread dipped in wine to His favourite disciple, Judas). Now 2000 years later, of the three crosses on the hill, the third one is raised higher: Saturn. (picture the three planets in the sky lined up as three crosses on a hill). Now Jesus is coming again (i say this symbolically, but i am personally feeling its reality more and more) but this time as Saturn (not Venus). So He should still be the Champion of these three planets (thought and communication, love, and Law), but His emphasis now more on Law rather than Love: bringing an "enforced" peace to the world. As He is now Saturn, he may appear more Satanic.

Ophichus the Healer returns again. What kind of healing does the World Healer bring this time, what serpents will he remove from us?

...and the Wheel turns on...

p.s: i think this individual who comes to reign is ELECTED. He is the Chosen One in that he is chosen by a “significant few” (a Freemason no doubt, who is recognised as righteous enough to at least be a figure-head/representative for this Most High Ideal). Just as the “Chosen People” are such because THEY HAVE CHOSEN THEMSELVES and thus take on the yoke of all that entails i.e: being righteous and conquering the World for the righteous to live in. in the same way, anyone who CHOOSES THEMSELVES to be worthy and challenges THEMSELVES to be righteous, are considered and ranked with the Chosen People.

Reply

Tantratek 31 February 25, 2012 at 7:26 am

If we are quick, and allow these three planets to be exalted within us (let the highest law be written in us and be a messenger of that law, which of course is love), then we may not need an elected one chosen to rule us because we will all be co-rulers of the Earth, as we rule ourselves. This may not be possible as i fucked things up a few years ago when i opened the time-door on the Age of Aquarius. I nearly made us all time-warp to the Age of Capricorn but i messed up (again). Sorry folks. Now we have to have TWO Ages ruled by Saturn. But we will achieve amazing things in the next 2000 years. One thing we will do is restore the pyramids to their former glory (like we always do at this point on the Great Wheel) so that'll be nice. In this Age, the most important symbol is the breaking and sharing of your bread. The bread of your body, the bread of your mind and the bread of your heart. Break them and share them. This is your service. The Healer of Nations is a Master Baker! He will renew you again and again. xXx

Reply

Tantratek 32 February 9, 2012 at 1:31 am

Two points: one is i notice that my computer program Star Chart doesn't show precession of the equinoxes, for example; if i cycle back to “Jesus’s birth”, spring equinox has not moved back to between Aries and Pisces but remains between Pisces and Aquarius. Maybe this is just due to the simplicity of the program i'm using! The second point of interest is about Lucifer the Carrier of Light. On the 3/6/2012 Mercury Venus and the Sun make a nice three-in-a-row pattern (perhaps not quite a pyramid alignment!), then three days later on 6/6/2012, Venus appears to eclipse the Sun and then on the 18/6/2012, the Sun is held up high in Orion's hand. I wonder if Orion is the Light-bearer? If the stars and planets of 2012 tell a story, then midday of the Summer Solstice is Lucifer at his highest and brightest, high in the heavens of God. From that moment he “falls to Earth” and by sunrise on winter solstice he has hit the horizon and is being “buried”. This may explain the confusion/conflicting stories between Jesus-dude and Lucifer-dude and Venus-dude, Lucifer falling to Earth after being “cast out of Heaven” is the same as Jesus “coming to Earth” and dying. Its the same as Osiris came to Earth to teach the Egyptians.

Now, the biggest question for me is, is it all astrological stories/myths, or is there a physical counterpart/embodiment/reflection of this within the soul collective of humans. As Above, So Below: how deep does this phrase go?

Reply

Caleb 33 February 8, 2012 at 11:12 pm

Your work is excellent and truthful. Yes, December of 2012 begins a new time cycle in human history- I know a fair amount about this subject but since you already figured out much then maybe I'll just add a little info.

The cycle that is ending is the real reign of Satan (a celestial being-not a fallen angel)-this being has been in power on this planet for many thousands of years. The history of this is very complex and I cannot possibly write it all here- but basically this evil empire that has been running this world for thousands of years is going to come to an end- the people who are running the world now are the descendants of those folks who came out of Egypt and spread all over the world. However, there are 2 factions of Israelites fighting each other for world dominance. So it's divinely poetic that the biblical story that began in Egypt should also end there with the pyramid alignment.

The 2 fighting factions of Israelites are- the sons of Esau (satanists) and the Sons of Jacob (most of whom follow the real God-but not all). In any case there is going to be a great battle between the 12 remaining tribes of Israelites. The real Israelites were the descendants of the Adamic people who built Sumeria, and they also built the Primary world Pyramids...including the 'activation-alignment' pyramid at Giza. The Giza pyramid is built on top of a spiritual energy vortex and this vortex is tied into a spiritual energy grid that covers the planet and is being used by the nefarious factions of Edomites (sons of Esau).

The primary energy circuits of this planet were cut off about 200,000 years ago by the angelic energy controllers...and they will not be restored until after the battle of armageddon and the real Moshaich (messiah) is revealed. The Satanic bloodline of Edomites are taking over the world in an attempt to destroy the sons of Jacob (adamites). The sons of Jacob are the rightful spiritual rulers of this planet- and the real Messiah will be a descendant of the Adamic Israelite Jacobites....NOT Prince William. William is a Satanic Edomite- an IMPOSTER.

There will be 2 Adamic-Israelite kings coming soon to Jerusalem- the first one will be the false messiah (what Christians call the Antichrist), and the second king who will come will be the Jacobite King of Adamic Israelites. The Rulers of this world are preparing for the 'Great Royal Battle' and the coming of the real Moshiach ben David.

The false Messiah will ascend the Temple mount and do some very nasty things which will be televised globally via satellite. The false Messiah will attempt to destroy the real Adamic Messiah....the real Messiah will be accompanied by the Lord of this universe sector whose name is Michael. Michael is a celestial being that is the direct 'Son' of the primal Deity (God the father). Michael has 'supernatural powers' of energy manipulation which are infinitely far beyond human science- and thankfully he will destroy the Edomite False Messiah and install the reign of the real Moshiach ben David. At that time the energy controllers will re-engage the spiritual energy circuits which are related to the pyramids.

Cheers and Good luck!

Sincerely,

Caleb Romanov

Reply

Caleb 34 February 8, 2012 at 11:24 pm

also the pyramids serve as spiritual energy focalization points that serve a particular (but unrevealed) purpose. This energy is not electro-magnetic or physical energy so ordinarily it cannot be recognized by scientific instruments.

This spiritual energy is particularly needed by the people who carry the adamic DNA to slow their aging process so they can live for very long periods of time-longer than ordinary humans. The ages of people in the Bible are real- the original Adamites have DNA which is different than ordinary human DNA and they can use these energy circuits to slow their aging and restore depleted spiritual energy. Ordinary human DNA does not respond very well to these circuits- the evil Edomites are attempting to use these circuits to retard aging and enhance their psychic powers. People who carry Adamic DNA do actually have more advanced brains than ordinary humans- and through this DNA they have real psychic ability. In fact the Jacobites and Edomites are also fighting a war on a psychic plane that most humans do not know even exists....hope this info helps.

Caleb i love what you have written. After Michael Jackson died (bare with me on this one!) i saw him in the constellation of Orion, or rather as the constellation of Orion, dancing thru the night sky. It was the most incredible and powerful and beautiful thing i have ever witnessed. Although Western Tropical astrology says he was a Virgo, by Eastern Sidereal astrology the Sun was directly over the Heart-Star, Regulus in Leo when he was born. A true King of Hearts! I have also discovered that i am not a Leo but actually Cancerian in this true-positioning astrology, which is a relief for me as my heart has softened in its release from having to be a lion, and i can see the true King! (please still bare with me on this!). Now this year, winter solstice, Osiris/Orion is “buried” in the Earth on the western horizon just before dawn, and at sunrise the New Sun is born (Horus, the Son of Osiris). The New Sun of the New Age is thus the Heart of Michael!

Ever heard the theory that Jesus was black? 😊

Reply

 Tantratek 37 February 9, 2012 at 12:28 pm

Michael’s energy, in his voice, in his words, in his movements, definitely awakened something in my DNA. He touched me, he touched my mind. How much was he fought against? How much was his Message attacked, and yet how many millions of hearts did he still reach? His sparkling socks! Aquarius rules the ankles anatomically, as Leo rules the heart. I may sound mad, thats cool by me, i don’t mind, because i know what i saw, and now i see even more. Maybe, perhaps just maybe, the magic of the One True God isn’t that he intends to set up a throne of gold on the Earth for him or his representative to sit, but to establish his throne in the internal city of the human heart. Or maybe it will be both, a greater magic perhaps, a living spirit within us, AND a physical representation/embodiment of that spirit. But surely an invisible God on an invisible throne within each man is safer than any building of stone to house one man?

Not to be rude, more of a joke really... I was trying to remember where I knew that name, tanratek, when I remembered, I was gonna ask if your name is from the dmt clan... I guess I don't have to ask that now. LOL

To be completely honest, I don't know how to respond to you or Caleb, except, many people believe many things. Even though I admit I'm prolly living in purposeful denial... I was positive nothing of any importance would happen on the fourth of this month, well I was wrong... the evidence is demanding there is a group of people that are playing with this world. However if I'm beginning to understand, and I'm not saying I am, 2012 does NOT equal the end of this game... if the evidence can be believed, it is simply the end of the beginning.

Before Feb 4th, I was holding onto the belief we here in the western world have no real immediate enemies, so we have to invent dangers... The longer we can push that unknown danger into the future the better. However, now I'm like, what the hell! This game is going to end badly for those involved, they have to know this... But then again, it all depends on the interpretation.

Like the dates you mentioned for this coming June. To try and see what they might mean, I would suggest you read Exodus and the book of Judges. Simply remove all mention of god and wrath. Try to see the story beneath the story... that has been changed over the centuries because its meaning lost meaning to our not so distant ancient ancestors. When I can give this the time it deserves, I will present a new interpretation of a story in the bible we all know. It completely changed the whole context of the bible for me. Yet for now this is all I have the time for.

So Charles, are you going to Egypt for 3rd December?! I'd love to meet u there and share a budweiser! I've been looking at all the beautiful visuals of the sky on my iphone app "Star Chart". I notice that Orion/Osiris is buried beneath the earth in the western sky as his son Horus the Sun rises in the East (with the three gifts of the three kings above him). Also i spotted Orion's faithful companion, Sirius the dog (Canis Major), sitting perfectly on the horizon, very obedient and watchful as his master dies (reminiscent of Anubis. Is the sphinx actually a dog?). I also looked at highnoon on June 18th and saw a victorious Orion high in the heavens holding the Sun above him like a torch. To his right i saw Taurus the Bull with two eyes, Alderbaran and Venus...and a crescent moon on her forehead! Lovely stuff. So... Cairo for a cup of tea and see the new King be born?!

Nothing is real unless someone else sees without being told or shown everything.... Thank You for stating so publicly! Your short statement suggests you not only see, you understand as well. I'm still not convinced this is actually happening, yet time will reveal all.

Regarding Egypt and Dec 3 to the 24, that depends on the world... these next few months should answer that question. If the answer is positive I would love to meet you and toast to humanities future.

I am sorry if my writting style is not as eloquent as the rest of the posters but I feel impelled to put upmy theory as to what the pyrimids are for. The complex at Giza was a beacon to launch into space. The interior construction looks like it was a special cauldron to combine certain ingredients in the chambers and get a reaction that would transport whomever or whatever was laying in the tomb would be transported somewhere else.

I also understand that most of the posters here believe 3 2012 is the date and that some of you are impelled to reveal your knowledge here on this site time is running out for us. But as much as we like to predict things we must remember for everything thayt we think we know there are more questions created. God (science, love and nature) wil not let us down at the end. He promised us.

As for the Pyrimids arround the world were nothing more than practice for the big one at Giza or men trying to duplicate the process that they saw happen. As it was in Babel when we got scattered arround after trying to repeat the construction. The transpotee took all the masons and built these transporters used them took all the knowledge with them and left us dirt scratchers here to wonder about it until kingdom come. We'll nver figure out what they were doing exactly. We have to create our own magic. Which is what I think a lot of you philosophers are doing here and now.

Hello Jason,

It would appear you are beginning to understand the physical attributes that can be found just below the surface... or, you have access to interesting people or information. My hope was people would unlock the spiritual truths first, but such is life. If you are unlocking the physical, you are about to have one heck of a journey... Enjoy The Ride!

To the person just below you, I have no intention of hiding the fact every culture on this planet used to sacrifice human beings for religious reasons. (If you want to read an excellent book on this subject I would recommend 'The Golden Bough' by sir James Frazer, you can find it and research every point/aspect for free online.) Nor do I feel the need to talk about the number 666 and how its viewed all around the world... like, some cultures and religions that are still active today see the number 666 as good luck and/or the number of God. Contrary to popular American and Christian belief, the world does not revolve around our perception of reality. Regarding Alierster Crowly... thanks for making me laugh. This information reminds you of a sex/drug addicted satanist who called himself the beast... who tricked himself and others into believing he could manipulate people and physical matter with his mind. Very funny indeed. Though I must admit every modern road in the esoteric world seems to lead towards, or begin with Crowly, Blavatsky or John Day. Each tragic lives that seem more of a beacon of what not to do... but then again the established worldwide beliefs are almost no better in my opinion.

Hello Matt,

If you're asking if I believe that is what our truly ancient ancestors were trying to pass forward, no I don't. Do I believe past present and future can be symbolized by a square, triangle, and a circle... Absolutely! Thank you for turning me on to this concept, I will attempt to purchase that person's book. Below is one of the secrets I believe our truly ancient ancestors were trying to pass forward... In our reality we are told we only use 10 to 18 percent of our brain power every moment, and that we ignore 90 to 99% of the information our eyes actually sees. What if the exercise below can reduce what we ignore down to 70%, while increasing our brain power/usage to 30 or even 40 percent per moment? How drastically would that change our world? The only way to find out is to begin...

The Exercise....

Grab a chair and place it 4 feet from any bare wall. (A white wall seems to work best.). As you sit in the chair facing the wall, try and focus on the space just in front of you. Try to narrow your focus to a cubic centimeter. After you see the first cubic centimeter of space, then try to see the space in front of the first and so on and so forth until you reach the wall. It is important that you really focus, and not attempt to see everything at once. You crawl before you take baby steps... For those who want run and use Shaman style glasses, you seriously want sober people around you. I won't tell anyone what they'll see because I want everyone to experience their own awakening... without any preconceived concepts... I've never used....

As I looked through Jacobs Ladder, and the first time it happened to me it was frightening, now when it happens I enjoy the ride... Yet before I go to the next world I will put on those goggles. It really is important you focus and stay patient. It will happen, and once you see our reality in little cubic forums that stretch all the way to the wall... You are now ready to get up and see our reality, our true reality for the first time. If you're not a patient person don't even begin... I tried it because the math said it was there... Good news for guys, I can tell you it truly is there, you can see the volume of space that separates, (or connects), everything. If you're willing to focus.

If you decide you want to see... As always...

Enjoy The Ride...

—Charles Marcello

Perhaps its because this information has led me to so many revelations, I believe people can see things as clearly as I can. All they needed was the basics to get started I thought. I've been waiting for someone else to notice everything mentioned above is pointing to a birth... To a story Christians know very well... and sadly will learn, its a horrible lie the Catholic Church murdered over 100 million people to keep secret, and destroyed all of South American wisdom to hide the evil that is the Catholic Churchs secret. Those three planets are the three wise men. Let's hope the gifts will equal the colors these three planets will look like in the morning sky on December 3 2012. The virgin birth was stolen from Egypt's mythology. Who in fact misunderstood the story past forward by the survivors of the last great planetary upheaval. The one catastrophe I've never worried about is a pole shift, because that story was told by people all across the world and nothing happened... ie... The Sun rose and set twice in the same day, some 2733 years ago... or... Did the Catholic Church create the Gregorian Calendar to hide the fact that that past event actually happened 2737 years ago, and right on schedule as the Pyramids of Giza and the Mayan/Aztec calendars demands? To know that answer you need to understand the history of why our calendar was created in the first place... And why America and Europe is hell bent on tricking the middle east into rebuilding the new and improved Roman Empire... Look at the territory owned by old Rome and where America and NATO are about to bomb next.

I would prefer everyone completely disagree with what I've just said... Never mind if you compare the buildup to Dec 25 2012 while using the old Jewish lunar calendar... Or the fact the Mayans/Aztecs worshiped the death of the old sun, and then waited three days for the birth of the new... Never mind if you ignore all the differences of all the world wide religious beliefs and focus on their similarities they all say the same thing. Never mind the Catholic Church created the bible in its own image after its own pagan beliefs, while murdering the truth about our true salvation. Never mind cities across the world have Dec 3, 2012 hidden within there landscape or statues... Including Washington DC and mission patch after mission patch in NASA... Never mind the fact in short order another 9/11 event must happen so we all give our freedoms away. Never mind the fact we've all been tricked into looking outside ourselves for salvation, when the truth has existed inside us the whole time.

In Genesis, the garden of Eden... What did the snake do wrong? Why did God use the snake in Exodus, who he just cursed for being possessed by Satan in Genesis, as one half of the signs Moses used to prove to the Hebrews he was sent by God? Never mind the hidden hand, or the god of the bible is not the God of the dead... That's seems kind of odd. In Jewish belief/tradition... You get your lineage from your father and your religion from the mother... Yet how could Jesus be from the house of David as prophecy demands if Joseph did not know Mary until after Jesus was born? How can he be from the house of David and be born from a virgin? If Judas is the son of perdition for doing what prophecy commanded, and then for doing what god had ordained, it would be better he was never born. Then why is God writing the names of all twelve apostles on his wall? If homosexuality is a sin how come two men will be sleeping in the same bed and one will be taken and the other left behind in the last days? Who is the only person stabbed with a sword the whole world knows of and yet lived? Why are we told to beware of that person? Why is Satan and Jesus both called the morning star? If there is to be no idol worship, then why is there a book we must hold above all else? If there shall be no gods before him in the old, then why is Jesus in the way in the new? Why are our bodies the temple of God yet unclean before God. If God is a wrathful, hateful, jealous God... Why is Satan alive yet you and I are held to such a low standard if we are the apple of god's eye? And finally, how come if you study the religions of the world both past and present... That the god of the bible never has an original idea, except when it comes to prophecy? Would you be surprised to know the bible tells us so? And it is the bible and the church it is warning us to come out of... I would prefer you dismiss everything I've said, as you try to answer every question asked above.

You do realize that by putting this out in the open, all you're going to do is create more hysteria, right? It's just going to make people more paranoid than they already are. So what if this happens? Nothing we can do to prevent any of it.

Very interesting on the line up of the planets, plus mars, that means that on that day Dec.3 they will be nicely lined up in the eastern sky just before sunrise.

They will also be in the constellation of Leo right where the falsely headed Spinx is looking. Now we have all those planets plus the earth on one side of the Sun on the 5th cycle of the precession of the constelations, that's alot of gravitational pull on the face of the Sun. The Mayans also were very interested in the passage of time tracing back many thousands of years and they also state that we are in the 5th Sun (5th cycle ?) and that it will end in fire from the sky, now have a look at the calender stone that is now in a Museum, look at the sun's face it has it's tongue sticking out. Science tells us that we are about to enter a new 11yr cycle of solar activity and the Sun has been unusualy quiet for some time. Allright if the Sun emits a large plasma ejection at the earth we will receive a very large dose of radiation which will knock out the Van Allen belt which protects life on earth. So tongue sticking out – plasma storm – 5th sun-cycle – gravitational effect of planets – fire from the sky, they have been warning us, nothing going to happen — be prepared Best wishes Mike Zacharia Sitchen's work translating the Sumarian Records is most revealing...his first book "The Twelfth Planet" opens a new world of understanding to any who reads it.

On the History Channel is a series called "Ancient Aliens" they show all the discoveries around the world and how they are all connected. Each civilization having the same information, recording it in their history, folk lores, and amazingly how Mythologies are stories of Cosmology.

The Ancients had accurate knowledge of the Solar System, the Sumarians listed the planets we know today!!!! Uranus and Pluto were only discovered in the 20th century....How is it that they were so far advanced over us??? When you know the truth it is simple to understand.

Dear Sir,

I read your theory with great interest. Pay no attention to people who write negative comments about how you perceive your truth. I once read on an ancient stone: (MY translation):The development of world knowledge happens at different stages. If you are a philosopher and you present the truth before the population is ready, you may be killed,// be mistaken for a clown// or worse. The idea being until the world is ready to accept a new idea, invention or truth, philosophers are plowing the sea.

My only question regarding your theory is: you apply TIME as we know it. I think if I were an ancient teacher, I would use TIME in the context of a SUNDIAL geometry. I would apply the measurements not of a culture or a measure but one of comparison based on the smallest demotive Egyptian point. There would be no latitude or longitudinal degrees in my argument until a universal symbol of comparison was established. It is obviously true that planets and stars are continuously changing. My argument would be based on a point (which I would align) on the circumference of the sun. (Maybe at a sun or lunar eclipse!) I would use a Pythagorean configuration between the sun, moon and earth, to draw a map of planets to the earth's solar system or beyond. As Leonardo da Vinci wrote: We have to know what star the ship is sailing by.

This is an excellent comment. One small clarification – the difference between sidereal and tropical year is over 20 minutes (not “seconds”) per year (0.014d is over 20 min). Nevertheless, the rest of the post is correct.

A sidereal year is the time taken by the Earth to orbit the Sun once with respect to the fixed stars. It was equal to 365.256363004 days at noon 1 January 2000 (J2000.0). This is 20 minutes and 24.5128s longer than the mean tropical year at J2000.0 which was 365.2421897 days (the length of time that the Sun takes to return to the same position in the cycle of seasons, as seen from Earth; for example, the time from vernal equinox to vernal equinox, or from summer solstice to summer solstice.)

Reply

korealinchen 65 September 18, 2011 at 2:21 am

Sidereal Year = 365.2563411 days

Tropical Year = 365.2422497 days

The differences between these two derived periods and the values currently put forth by astronomers involve only matters of seconds per year, a discrepancy which should not be considered too important over such a long period of time. Even our own modern years have occasional atomic “leap seconds” inserted into them for greater accuracy of measurement.

Because the difference between these two derived values for the Sidereal and Tropical Years is equal to 365.25 divided by 25,920; and because the difference between 9,467,444.325 days and 9,467,079.1125 days is precisely 365.250000 days, we can therefore conclude, just as the Egyptian astronomers told us with the Great Pyramid, that the correct average length of one Earth Year over a period of one cycle of the Precession of the Equinoxes is unequivocally and exactly 365.25 days!

According to the Egyptians, this exact year of 365.25 days coincided with the Star Sirius or “Sothis”, as they referred to it. They used this star to calculate the exact start of each new year, so as not to get out of synch with the Precession of the Equinoxes. The Egyptian Sothis Period, as it was called, supposedly lasted for 1,461 years. What is the significance of this number?

First of all and most obviously, 1,461 is the number of days in 4 full years if the Pyramid Year of exactly 365.25 days is used. $365.25 \times 4 = 1,461$ (and $1,461 \div 3 = 487$).

Secondly and more importantly, 1,461 is a reference to a cycle of years. As such, it must somehow be reconciled with the Precession Cycle of 25,920 years. But the number 25,920 is not evenly divisible by 1,461. The nearest, closest number than can be evenly divided into 25,920 is 1,440.

$$25,920 \div 1,440 = 18$$

$$1,461 - 1,440 = 21$$

$$18 \times 1,461 = 26,298$$

$$26,298 - 25,920 = 378 \text{ excess years (or } 18 \times 21\text{)}$$

However, one orbit by the Planet Earth around the Sun requires 360° , as well as 365.25 axial rotations.

Four years equal four orbits. $4 \text{ orbits} \times 360^\circ = 1,440^\circ$

Significantly, the difference between the number of axial rotations in 4 years and the number of orbital degrees in 4 orbits is 21, which is also the difference between the Egyptian Sothis Period and the nearest equivalent number of years that can be reconciled with Precession.

Therein lies the exclusive key to the Egyptian Sothis Period.

4 years = 1,461 axial rotations

4 orbits = 1,440 degrees

Eventually, after the passage of a number of years, enough increments of 21 days will accumulate in excess of the number of degrees to, in effect, create the possibility for a “statistical adjustment” of the cycle to reflect the fact that the number of days in a given even cycle of years would exactly total the number of degrees in a given even cycle of orbits. Such a point in Time and Space would theoretically allow the calendar to be modified to show exactly 360 days per year, as the Egyptians and Sumerians once recorded, and as Dr. Velikovsky has so ably discussed in Part II of Worlds In Collision.

$$365.25 - 360 = 5.25 \text{ days}$$

$$5.25 \times 72 \text{ years} = 378 \text{ days}$$

$$378 - 360 = 18$$

$$72 \text{ years} \times 365.25 \text{ days} = 26,298 \text{ days}$$

$$72 \text{ orbits} \times 360^\circ = 25,920^\circ$$

$$26,298 - 25,920 = 378$$

After the passage of 72 years of 365.25 days each, or after the passage of 72 orbits of 360° each, enough days would have accumulated in excess of 72×360 to allow the calendar to be modified to show the passage of 73 “Orbit-Years” of 360 days each, plus 18 extra days. And keep in mind that, as was stated above, 72 Earth Years are required for the Precession of the Equinoxes to “precede” by one degree. Then, after the passage of 20 such periods of 73 Orbit-Years, an additional 360 days would have further accumulated, requiring that an additional Orbit-Year be added at the end of the twentieth cycle.

$$360 \div 18 = 20$$

$$73 \times 20 = 1,460$$

$$1,440 \text{ years} \times 365.25 \text{ days} = 525,960 \text{ days}$$

$$1,461 \text{ orbits} \times 360^\circ = 525,960^\circ$$

$$20(72 \times 365.25) = 20(73 \times 360) + (20 \times 18), \text{ or } 525,960 = 525,960$$

$$1,440 \times 365.25 = (1,460 \times 360) + 360$$

$$1,440 \times 365.25 = 1,461 \times 360!$$

If we were to refer to the Precession of the Equinoxes as “One Galactic Hour”, then 1 Galactic Hour would contain 18 Egyptian Sothis Periods of Orbit-Years. By the end of 1 Galactic Hour there would be a total statistical correction by Orbit-Years (“systemic leap years”, so to speak) to reflect the numerical difference between 26,298 orbits of 360° each and 25,920 years of 365.25 days each.

$$25,920 \text{ years} \times 365.25 \text{ days} = 9,467,280 \text{ days}$$

$$26,298 \text{ orbits} \times 360^\circ = 9,467,280^\circ$$

$$25,920 \text{ years} = 26,298 \text{ orbits}$$

$$378 = 360 + 18$$

$$1,461 - 1,440 = 20 + 1$$

$$(20 + 1) \times 18 = 378$$

$$378 + 25,920 = 26,298$$

$$\text{Square Root of } 378 = 19.4422222222$$

$$\text{And, } 19.442222 \div 4 = 4.860555!$$

The Square Root of the numerical difference between 26,298 orbits and 25,920 years is 19.442222222, a number that is in direct sequence with the excess amount of Galactic or Cosmic Precession in 25,920 years, which is 1.944° . This can be shown as follows:

The annual movement of the Precession of the Equinoxes involves a rate of Zodiac passage of exactly $50.27''$ per year. One complete 360° movement is equivalent to a movement of 1,296,000 seconds.

$$360^\circ \times 60' \times 60'' = 1,296,000 \text{ seconds}$$

$$1,296,000'' \div 50.27'' = 25,780.783 \text{ years}$$

If we now multiply an annual rate of Precession of $50.27''$ by 25,920 years, we get a movement by the Planet Earth of 361.944° in 25,920 years.

At first glance, this excess movement of 1.944° would seem to invalidate the earlier calculations involving the Egyptian Sothis Period – but don’t forget the numerical similarity of 1.944° with 19.442222222, the Square Root of the excess within the Sothis Period. Therefore, it is the conclusion here that just as the Earth itself has to “precede” by $50.27''$ every 1 Earth Year, so also does this entire Solar System have to “precede” with respect to the Cosmos by 1.944° every 1 Galactic Hour. Eventually, just as with the Sothis Period, this excess Cosmic Precession which occurs at the end of every Galactic Hour would total an additional even 360° .

The number 19.442222222 points to the birthdate of YAHWEH, Brian Leonard Golightly Marshall (Branch Lion of Judah Galilea Marshall) (11th of January 1944) and the key of David (Isaiah 22,22), the root of Jesse. The Giza pyramid is the altar to Yahweh in the midst of Egypt (Isaiah 19,19). Channah YT korealinchen

Beyond Coincidence:

That the planets line up with the pyramids on any date. That the pyramids were built at the geographic center of the planet. That the pyramids mirror the belt stars of Orion.

Could you look into the possibility of there being a connection (clue) to these 3 facts? Especially between the algining stars and where the belt stars will be at that moment in time or something along those lines. I don't necessarily agree with all that you say and don't understand all of it but I commend you on doing some great work here. I would like to see you contact Robert Bauval(sp? the man who discovered the belt star connection) or Graham Hancock on this and see what they think. Thanks for this interesting article.

Hello Chele and Mike,

Thank you both for your kind comments, I'm not attempting to be rude or disrespectful. I have zero intention of walking anyone through all the esoteric aspects of this discovery and just how deep this all goes. If anyone is confused as to the significance of any of those numbers... whether separately or combined... I strongly suggest they begin their own journey there. Simply Google, "the historical/esoteric meaning of 144 or, 333, 777, 888 etc, etc". There are many meanings to each that span time and cultures throughout the world. If I give only one meaning to fit one aspect of this discovery, someone will inevitably demand this discovery should be ignored for those other (not used) meanings they want you to focus. Or someone will show up with their fundamentalist beliefs and demand these numbers equal whatever their religious bent demands they equal... let alone all those people who hate anything religious... yet all of this information is religious in nature.... though not a religion the vast majority of our planet openly practices anymore. Not to mention, if I take people down this road, this information will be used by those who want the world to believe we're all gonna die sometime between now and Dec 2012 from godly or universal forces hell bent on killing us all. While I keep trying to explain, the greatest threat man has ever faced and continues to face is man. Now if people can prove they're researching this information I'm all about having a conversation.

Charles, when you write please understand you are speaking to people who have been trained in Western arithmetic. You seemingly plucking numbers out of thin air that make no sense. Example below in [[[]]]:

""Dec 21 is exactly 18 days away from Dec 3. The Catholic Church is solely responsible for those dates and the significance of the numbers hidden within. You see if I asked you how many pyramids exist at Giza the quick answer is 9 [[[I thought there was 3 pyramids]]]. 9 plus 3 equals 12 [[[where did the other 6 come from?]]], or 12/12/12 [[[lost again]]]. However, if I asked you how many sixes you could create from the Pyramids at Giza the answer changes to 6, 6, 6 [[[no idea where this came from]]], when added together equals 18, then when you add 18 to Dec 3 you get Dec 21, 2012. Now lets break down what the Catholic Church did on purpose.

3/12/12 equals 144 [[[sorry don't see it please explain]]]. All the numbers below equal very biblical and world wide esoteric numbers.

12/12/12 equals 333 or 444. [[[I'm lost]]]

21/12/12 equals 744. [[[lost again don't understand your logic]]]

This is what makes reading your material difficult to follow, if you loose your subject in the first paragraph what's the point of continuing. I guarantee 99.99% of the folks left soon after your counting method made no sense.

Best regards, Mike

I see what he did with the number thing in some places.

The 3/12/12 equals 144 from this _3_12_12 (dividing each number by 3)

$$\begin{array}{r} \underline{-} \\ 1 \quad 4 \quad 4 \end{array}$$

The 12/12/12 equals 444 from 12 divided by 3=4 (3 times.....444) (or 3 times by #4 is 333).

And the 21/12/12 equals 744 from 21 divided by 3=7, 12 divided by 3=4 (2X)=744

Not sure what is all means though....

A very good and Interesting article Charles.

I've always been fascinated by the pyramids and the stars and the mystique that surrounds them. Watching the Northern lights and the stars back home in Iceland have been well spent evenings.

As I'm of the old school(53)and a seaman to boot,usually 3 months out,1 home,I've had little time or patience to learn properly the use of the computer(as often we don't have internet connections off the African coast) and the library resources here on board are quite poor, and when I'm home I usually try to spend as much time with my family as I possibly can.

As much as I would LOVE to run thru your mathematical calculations and figure it out by myself,I just don't have the resources or the time.

So,as I'm very curious by nature,would it be possible for you to send me your findings to my E-Mail?(I'm at sea now). You can also throw in your assumptions about the future events. It can't be any more wrong than all the other predictions.I think yours would be the most interesting anyway.

My E-Mail is;hafhal99@gmail.com

Just a thought, the stars foretold of the comming of Jesus, I wonder if I did a search on the night skies for the next 5 years it may suggest a story of the end times, though it will have to be over Israel.

The stars when he was born had Leo the lion and Virgo aligned with the moon under her feet and with Jupiter. Makes for interesting topics.

Hello Jason Apoyan,

I believe I understand your point regarding Biblical scriptures... could it be the 'Norway Spiral' of Dec 2009 was prophecy being fulfilled? If you look upon a rolled up scroll from the top or bottom, does it not look like a spiral? If we accept the Norway Spiral is prophecy fulfilled while the whole world marvelled as an untested President received the Peace Prize for things he might do in the future, and then failed miserably... could another prophecy be fast approaching.... when they profess peace and security sudden destruction cometh...

The amount of information hidden in plain sight at Giza can be easily found when the world sees our reality for what it is...3 Dimensional!!! The hidden science is unbelievable! Which suggests... if mankind could achieve such understanding in our distant past... to predict mankind would do so again some time in the future does not seem all the incredible. Especially seeing how we can only now unlock the Giza science. What concerns me however are the other aspects of attributing future realities from past actions. We know whoever built those pyramids are long lost... whether by war or God (universal) wrath is still open for debate... what is not, is how humanity seems to follow biblical prophecy like prescribed robots playing a sick revolving game of destruction and misery. While mankind purposely perverts the truth of God while hiding the truth of our personal relationship with him and ourselves.

If mankind does not learn to love like God... some unknown future generation will prescribe laughable anecdotes of our own time... while we the children of God (the universe) continue to destroy the truth, by simply accepting the lies a small group of evil idiots force us to carry. If God (the universe) with all his/its wisdom is not pure love, then we are nothing but pawns to a powerful sick demi-god that humanity... over time and much blood... continues to out grow... then we are destroyed.. for I shall never serve something that hurts others simply because it can.

According to the Bible both the devil and Jesus are the morning star... while the morning star equals, around the world and throughout time, the planet Venus. Why did our ancestors not question that simple contradiction? Now our time is forced to answer... who is the king of this world, a man or all men? If we are all kings then there are no kings because we are all subservant to all. Just like Giza is teaching. It takes humanity to equal humanity. There is only one solar system that you and I can exist within at any moment... only in one space per moment... and we can only personally interact with those in our limited area of influence. A man can be known to the world, but only God truly knows the man. And that is the dangerous game humanity has chained our revolving misery to. Yet that can change... we can stop our time from becoming a dated mystery. Our time can become a beacon of light that will shine for 1000 prophetic years. Each of us are the temples created to honor God... we are not some mystery buried under the sea or some desert. The truth of who we are is being revealed and fulfilled... we will either learn to love each other as God loves us, or we will die! The Pyramids of Giza and those found around the world are a testament to a worldwide society that chose the latter. Our time is not written in stone, if we break the yoke placed upon on necks from birth and learn the truth... we are one... if we don't then our time will be marked in dust and stone as one half of prophecy demands. Mankind simply needs to choose, that is what those middle eastern scriptures are screaming at us... continue as you are and die... or learn from our tragic mistakes, (the other half of prophecy), and live. The time for us to choose is fast approaching.

Hi charles marcello admire how much effort you put in the workings off giza at this world society which we are connected some what through a school of thought some times changes place have given your presentation a lot of thought you do seem that you are uplifted with the research of the monuments at giza ill try to focus on that subject ^ those shining years that you mentioned always as a catch when we delve into the future in a physical sense may be the balance can be found in between the forces of light and dark and not so much with maths, if mistakes are made do you have faith that they are corrected from student to teacher vice versa, the complexes that are put in place stand to serve mankind through location there seems to be a moral code to live for,which has always been the case here and far.

This could very well be the Judgement of nations at Giza complex if you create a thought form if the energy at present goes that way,to be in control of reality some what VERY USEFULL at the moment so choose your maker!!!!here are some words from middle east scriptures,The lord shall come forth out of his place,and tread upon the high places of the earth,the heavens rolled together as a scroll, and further it mentions,that this lord has dominion over all other nations and kings,so what went on there in our ancient past,well the rest of the story is as good as you make.

Everyone has permission to do whatever they want with this information. This information doesn't belong to me... the discovery okay... everything else belongs to humanity. That's why I've never asked for one red cent... and usually don't respond to people who aren't proving they're doing the work themselves. I don't like talking at people, I like having conversations.

Regarding Hawkins...

The answer is right there within light itself. Does light ever give off a radiation? That answer is confusing if you accept light does not exist within our own reality. Which is pure nonsense, yet that is the stuff we are told we must believe. Three dimensional mathematics, if people would simply do the work, it will prove beyond any mathematical doubt the truth about light. Which in turn will teach humanity how to turn light into unimaginable amounts of energy. The answer is hidden in plain sight within Hawkins formula, you simply need to turn his answers into a three dimensional equation to see how.

My friends in Christ, the revelation upon us is, the rising of Lucifer and the Brightness of Glory of our Father in Christ ...causing darkness to perish. Lucifer knows his time is short, as with a man, the corrupt host shall be sealed and fallen away forever. You are looking at the clock. 2012-2016 the new age time of the new world order and last claim of Lucifer's false dominion. This Giza Masonic Time falls in line with the Anrichrist and the false peace with Israel and the nations. This is the time of the last generation, for the occult and for the Saints of the Harvest. We shall see sudden destruction, as we are now, and the crisis that quickly seals the new order. When we see this peace plan in the coming months, after the begining of 2012, after the crisis which calls all the nations to this prophetic order, have no doubt what time it is.

All my life the sum total of recorded human history was compressed into a period of about 5,000 years. How sad I felt when I discovered that human and possibly non-human history of this earth can go as far back as 27,000 years or even more.

Between the indoctrination of religion and the directed misinformation of a public school education I was both thoroughly disappointed and enlightened when I discovered the works of researchers like Mr. Marcello. Disappointed only because of the lies and propaganda passed off by public schools as history. I truly believe that no one knows who built the pyramids and when, and that the Egyptians integrated them into their culture for thousands of years. It's like the house you live in... you don't know who built it or when it was built, but you have made it distinctly yours throughout the years.

Mr. Marcello and researchers like him deserve your respect and not your barbs. If you really want to criticize the existence of a truth, you can begin by explaining the concept of fractional banking that allows for $14 trillion of debt when that much money has never been or ever will be printed. Then explain to me just how much of that debt is nothing more than bits and bytes in cyberspace. Maybe then you can claim the ability to criticize other researchers....doh!

Hello Albert,

I guess I don't understand your question. What is my point? Hmm, I guess I never thought it through that far. I simply study what is there and then take whoever is interested to the door. I explain what you will find if you walk through that door.

In the past, sometimes people saw exactly what I said they'd see, and at others times people didn't see any of it. And I'd be perplexed... So I've decided, stop telling people the whole story. Its their life let them decide how far and how deep they want to travel. Give them the juicy parts yes, yet everything else is there waiting for you, them... and myself... People simply need to decide what they're going to do. If I were to think about it any more, I'm pretty sure I would be somewhat almost positive that's my point.

The author is a liar. The claim to be skeptical is actually pseudoskepticism, designed to connect with the truly skeptical in a deceptive manner. Someone who behaves in that manner shows they lack intellectual integrity and honesty. Misrepresentations of fact, illogical nonsense, ridiculous claims, attempts to connect with readers through dishonesty.

Garden variety crankery.

Dear Charles

I have just deciphered the LOST MANUSCRIPT of CESAR de NOSTREDAME. The information for this decoding came from the Hidden Texts.

In all the Quatrains there is no alignment MERCURY VENUS SATURN. However, you will be pleased to know that there is one mention in the Hidden Texts, and quite an important mention. First I wish to take you to task on your comment "It was ... impossible for those who built the pyramids to know what ... calendar..." According to the forum I am still working on in the Hidden Texts which is to be titled "STAGE GATE – STARGATE" – Nostradamus assures us that the pyramid (pyre: fire...mid: in the middle) stands over (to be brief here) a stage gate.

For the inner details I did on my web site, a short forum "LOST THING" which is an introduction to it. Google THE HIDDEN TEXTS of NOSTRADAMUS.

Any one using a stargate/stage gate (which is how Nostradamus seems to have received his information) would have complete knowledge not only of what calendars which are being used in the future, but also what language...and this is the reason the hidden texts have been supplied in the English language. The date you provide is spot on. Shipton and Nostradamus give the date of St Lucy's day: Dec 13. Allow for the Greg. calendar, deduct 10 days and you get the factual date of December 3.

I also, have noticed that the dates the "gods" seem to choose relate to the Jewish Easter and towards the "Christian" Christmas (in the Hidden Texts)

The other consistent date is that of June 6 – 10, mentioned in relation to the "GRAND PULSE"

U is also Mistletoe day: December 23

URANITES: of the heavens

PAPERS: Sunday SET: Easter

REED: Celt decans Oct 28 – Nov 24

AS is god of the aettir. U means heavenly. Could also be USA CHORE – BOON

CHORE: Golden Host doing. BOON could be the Rapture

N are the Eridanians. Can also mean Mars and Celt Ash tree: Feb 18 – March 17

N is runic for "the need". This could be interpreted very much as a planet cleansing

STAR RUIN: the worst case scenario of the poles shifting.

Back to the configuration of the pyramids:

firstly, according to Herodotus, the Great Pyramid was already there when its supposed builder/s Cheops-Khufu-Chefren-Khafre were constructing a CAUSEWAY that took ten years, and a tomb (sepulchre) “in an island” nearby. Therefore neither of these kings built the pyramid.

According to Nostradamus the face on the sphinx is that of Hatshepsut. The “crowned” queen. The “UNDER GIZA” clues were very important for the decoding of The Lost Manuscript. It all comes back to the stage gate-stargate and who it was that placed it under the pyramid system. Most people seem to agree with the idea of the position of the pyramids replicating Orion’s Belt, and so does Nostradamus in the forum on the Stage Gate.

I agree with both ideas,yours and Nostradamus, since they belong to each other.

Thus supplying:

- a) who the “gods” were and where they came from
- b) fortifying their message and their warning – for those capable of seeing it (you, Charles and Graham Hancock and Bauval)
- c) a message Nostradamus is also trying to send us via the Hidden Texts and surprisingly also present in both his Letter to Cesar and in his Epistle to Henri.

For further details feel free to email me and I will send the work I have so far done but not yet published on my site...at hiddentext@live.com.au. Helen Parks

Bible, Shimble or should I say psycho Bible babble. Anyone who puts together prolific information and then refers to the Bible to back up his case can hardly be taken seriously thus putting his information in deep jeopardy. The Bible, though it holds some wisdom, holds a lot more of old Jewish cultural stories that were fabricated or at best some truths that were distorted beyond belief. Certainly an educated rational person divulging Esoteric information can find a more reliable source to back up his claims.

You know, I once parted the waters in a lake behind my house, but unfortunately there was no one there to verify it for me at the time, so you will have to take my word on it. I swear on the Bible it is true. Praise the Lord.

This is the most interesting thing I've ever read on the net. Certainly worthy of further investigation. While the math can be proved at times I'm not certain of exactly what you are trying to explain by it or what the data points to. So just tell us instead of treating us like children that are pupils in a class that you are teaching. Just lay it all out, explain every detail. Also, as you seem to be a student of the bible and you seem to think that it fits in with all this I have a question for you. At a time of great suffering I actually turned to christianity for help. So I studied the bible which caused me to reject it. The part that proved that it was merely mythology to me was when Moses went up on the mount to recieve the 10 commandments. When he and god looked down from the mount and saw that the people were worshipping the golden calf, god got angry and said he would wipe out these people and raise a new group of people for Moses to lead, and Moses talked him out of it by remaining calm and explained to god why he shouldn't do such a thing. Obviously, a mere mortal shouldn't be able to use superior reasoning and remain more level headed than the supposed creator of the universe in a situation that would cause anger. Is there any significants to that episode that would pertain to your theory? Thanks the post and once again, lay out your whole theory. While it may seem extremely clear to you what all the data means, others of us may need some explanation for it.

Hello again Ron,

I will be away from my computer until sometime next week or weekend. I am creating this response from my phone.

I understand and appreciate your frustration, however I'm not asking you and everyone else to study so as to glorify myself.

Let me ask a hypothetical question... if you had two types of knowledge, one brings peace and the other total destruction... and both answers are found within the same sources... which of them would you want the world to learn first?

There is a method to this madness... and some things are going to remain unknown within this blog. So as not to take away from the visual majesty beauty of Dec 3, 2012... which is the main focus, while hinting towards there is more to find. I will be explaining how Egyptian and Mayans/Aztec cultures unlock truths hidden in plain sight within our world, when I'm back in front of my computer next week. The numbers both above and below this post... if you listen... will completely amaze, and possibly upset you. Until then, please listen to Graham Hancock and Maurice Cotterell's videos on YouTube. That certainly won't take you years to do and will help you understand.

Hello Charles,

Thank you for the additional information which is all very interesting. However, I'm still not sure what your point is!

Your writing style leaves a lot to be desired, but that is understandable as you are obviously very excited about something and desperate to get it out. Unfortunately you are not making a very good job of it. No offense intended, but I'm sure you'll agree that we readers of this website spend our valuable time on here in the hope of finding some enlightenment, not to be baffled with apparently meaningless information.

Gary Udovich made the following very sensible point –

“the job of the researcher is to enlighten his audience (not confuse them) with his understanding of the material ... you should (therefore) guide us through your paths of research, showing how these lines of inquiry both connect and have relevance.”

The section on the planetary alignment was excellent. It was clear, intelligently thought out and well presented. It was also valuable new information that other researchers appear to have missed – so well done for that.

However, the rest of your article is more of a rant or a ramble, jumping from one subject to another with no direction, no linking thread and, sadly, no obvious point.

I’m afraid that giving us lots of numbers, without explaining their relevance is just frustrating. Telling us to compare numbers with the Bible, or Pagan lore, or Mason mythology is just bad writing. How do you expect anyone to do that? It would take years – many, many years! That’s the job of researchers, not the general public – they have much more trivial things to do.

Very best regards,

Pyramids here, pyramids there, pyramids damn near everywhere. While dealing with numbers and various celestial alignments is profound and intriguing, it does not clearly and percisely explain why Pyramids around the world were built and used for. The ancients understood and employed a spiritual scientific knowldge lost to us and constructed those structures for a number of reasons.

One of the main reasons the pyramids at Giza and others around the world were constructed was to isolate earth energy, (they are all built on conjunction of ley lines) and force the energy up to its apex so as to integrate with star energy flowing down from the heavens. ie., Egyptians aligned with the stars of Orion's belt, The Mayans aligned their's with The Pleadias. The shamanic purpose was to use the combined energy for initiates seeking sacred universal knowldge to experience diffrent dimensions via out of body experience and become living Gods or Buddhas if you will. Even though the edifice now not properly fuctioning as it was meant to, I can tell you first hand that the energy inside the granite box in the centre of the great pyramid of Giza is so intense that after lying in it for only four minutes casued me to quickly leave the structure as I was to black out from over-radiation.

Past that, pyramid energy was used for healing the phsical and meta-phsical aspects of humans, for storing wheat and wheat seeds etc., for energy transfer to benefit their society, for alcamey purposes, for astronomical calculations and various calenders including astological ages, for stabilizing the wobble of the planet after the last flood threw it off kilter and more....

Personally, I am not convinced that the ancients necessarily had future human generations in mind as one of their priorities. They, like many other ancient enlightend culutures built them for their own purposes. As for the 2012 scernio, you know, it is a precession marker that astologically identifies the end of the old astrological precessional calender and beginning of the new, starting with the golden age of Aquaris. Will anything spectacular happen on 12/21/2012, probably not, but then again who really knows, the world is so uncertain and moving so fast these days that I am inclined to eat my dessert before my meal. If 2012 was meant to be a wake up call, who and how many then are waking up in such illusionary uncertain times. Certainly not the ones with greed and the power.

Concerning the advancing new age of Aquaris, I would not bet that the world or even the all enlightened ones will be catapulted into a heavenly place after the turn of 2012. The world as a whole must still endure the hangover and passing of past collective human negative Karama that has been built over at least the past 2160 years. Ever heard you got to go through hell to get to heaven, well hold on to your Yamakas, I fear the future will be a rough ride. The best one can do is keep awake, expect the unexpected and hope for the best.

Charles Marcello 96 May 3, 2011 at 11:37 pm

Hello Ron,

What is being asked of you is not being done because I believe the world is going to end. The greatest threat man has ever faced is man. The reason I'm asking people like you to research the simple aspects of this discovery is... so you will know whether its true or not instead of just having an opinion with zero knowledge . Ridiculous I know... I realize people are so anti-2012 they over look the obvious. Those pictures and the math do not lie.

Lets look at some of those numbers. Even though the date is Dec 3, 2012. The date has to start as one.

1 days*24hrs*60minutes equals 1,440 * 60 seconds equals 86,400... those numbers are huge, monster... they mimic our Sun. 144,000, 432,000 and 864,000. Quick question: Did anyone accurately give the Sun's dimensions before the creation of the telescope?

Now three, nine and eighteen days.

3 days*24hours*60minutes equals 4320 * 60seconds equals. 259,200

9 days*24hours *60 minutes equals 12,960 * 60 seconds equals 777,600

18days*24hours*60minutes equals 25,920 * 60seconds equals 1,555,200

If you go off of ancient calendar 360 days to equal a year... you start to see the truth hidden inside the above numbers... not to mention they also demanded Mars took 720 Earth days to equal one year. In our day that has changed, but those monuments were not created in our day, so it is our job to stop being so conceited... we seriously need to shut up and listen.

But why 3, 9 and 18... let alone 27 and 216? All of those numbers are found within the Pyramids of Giza... but here's were it gets cool. 144,000 and 666 can be found all over the world... ALL OVER THE WORLD! The question is WHY??? Well lets listen!

The Numbers broken down with some information as to what todays science says they could mean.

$$144,000 * 6 = 864,000 \text{ (Sun circumference)} - 144 * 6 = 864$$

$$144,000 / 6 = 24,000 \text{ (Simple Earths circumference)} - 144 / 6 = 24$$

$$24,000 / 6 = 4,000 \text{ (Simple Earth Center from circumference)} - 24 / 6 = 4$$

$$4,000 / 6 = 666.66 - 4 / 6 = .666$$

$$144,000 * 36 = 5,184,000 - 144 * 36 = 5,184 \text{ (Mayan full Sun Cycle.)}$$

$$144,000 / 36 = 4000 - 144 / 36 = 4$$

$$24,000 / 36 = 666.66 - 24 / 36 = .666$$

$4,000 / 36 = 111.11$ — $4 / 36 = .111$

$144,000 * 216 = 31,104,000$ — $144 * 216 = 31,104$ (1/6 speed of light.)

$144,000 / 216 = 666.66$ — $144 / 216 = .666$

$24,000 / 216 = 111.11$ — $24 / 216 = .111$

$4,000 / 216 = 18.5185$ — $4 / 216 = .0185185$

$144,000 * 666 = 95,904,000$ — $144 * 666 = 95,904$

$144,000 / 666 = 216.216$ — $144 / 666 = .216$

$24,000 * 666 = 15,984,000$ — $24 * 666 = 15,984$

$24,000 / 666 = 36.036$ — $24 / 666 = .0360$

$4,000 * 666 = 2,664,000$ — $4 * 666 = 2,664$

$4000 / 666 = 6.006$ — $4 / 666 = .006006$

$666 * 6 = 3,996$

$666 / 6 = 111$

$666 * 36 = 23,976$

$666 / 36 = 18.5$ (speed of the earth)

$666 * 216 = 143,856$

$666 / 216 = 3.083$

$6*6*6 = 216*432,000$ equals 93,312,000.

Not to mention massive pyramids are found all over the world, and if you pay attention, they seem to be in a regular order, instead of a irregular disorder... some of those pyramids are as big as a mountain, and some only just found within the last ten years. Not to mention major ancient earth marks that demand major cities existed at one time in South Africa, which were bigger then Mexico City. Not to mention monolithic structures that are fifty feet or more under sea water, which demands they had to have been built during the last ice age or sometime before 12 thousand years ago, which demands progression of knowledge... Again, these numbers are just the beginning. Then the question becomes why pyramids. There are all kinds of theories... my favorite. Because they can survive under water, under sand, under tons of dirt and trees. Not to mention they also help deflect extreme winds. For me it makes perfect sense if you wanted to make sure you could pass a message forward.

With all of that being said. I look at Dec 3, 2012 as a celebration.

We are talking about an event that hasn't happened in over 27,000 years as seen from Egypt. Egypt needs to grab this truth and run with this all the way to the bank. Their country can make billions, billions!!! It will give their people something to focus on other then how horrible things were, are, or could be in the future. This is a gift from the Gods being handed to them on a silver platter. LETS PARTY!!! You know the place and the time of day... one hour before Sunrise... We've all partied until the Sun comes up... yet on that day it will be to an extremely rare solar event. Even if the world is gonna end, lets PARTY any damn way! Tell the gods we aint afraid of no death, you can have my spirit but you can't have my Budweiser... But hey, that's just me...

Seriously... I'm asking you to research because the more you do, the more you know, the more you know the more you understand just how cool this date actually is.

If the pyramids and other ancient monuments were built thousands of years ago specifically to warn us of an impending catastrophe in 2012 then all that great work has been wasted because here we all are just months away from the potential event but without a clue about what to expect next!!

Even worse, some people say they have solved the puzzle but instead of telling us, they want us to go and waste our remaining time scouring the internet to find out the answer ourselves.

Can anyone else see how ridiculous all this sounds?

Hello B,

There are many levels to this discovery, many! Those pictures above are there to get your attention. To make the whole world relook at old thoughts about our truly ancient past. Your first post did in fact ask the right questions. The question now becomes, using the information above, do you know how to go about answering those questions? I realize everyone wants everything in one giant, "here ya go" post... that's only because you don't know how far and how deep this really goes. Please look at other ancient sites around the world, compare their placements. This journey has only just begun... I'm positive I've only solved a very small piece of this puzzle.

Here is the very first poem I wrote at eighteen, they're words I live by... its called; if you listen and believe everything you hear, you won't learn anything.

 if you listen and don't believe everything you hear, you are doomed to fail.
 but, if you listen and think about everything you hear, only then are you free to use your own mind.

In my opening blog I mentioned Feb 4, 2012 as day to watch... I have a running hypotheses if there is an active religious cult preparing to venerate Dec 3, 2012, then according to esoteric experts they must follow certain ancient religious doctrine... if any of it is true then we should see something physical, political, or economical happen, or the process begin somehow on Feb 4, plus or minus twenty-four hours.

As an added bonus for the month of February... last year I had a dream warning me about 155 days and an earthquake. I told my wife about the dream and she suggested I mark our calendar and see what happens. Well I forgot all about it, and several days after the day to watch had passed I noticed the calendar, and dismissed the whole thing as another crazy dream. Well I've just learned of a 188 day cycle where people demand 4 times in a row now an earthquake 7.0 or higher has struck somewhere in world exactly 188 days apart (plus or minus 24hrs) and the next 188 day cycle could happen on March 22, 2012. So now I'm wondering if that dream was trying to explain the cycle has now changed or will change sometime in the future to a 155 day cycle. Thereby shortening this current cycle of destruction by 33 days. IF... the cycle has changed then the days to watch are Feb 18 thru the 20, with the exact date being Feb 19... March 22 minus 33 days equals February 19.

Now I'm not asking anyone to believe in any of this, for I too am extremely skeptical... however, if Feb 4 comes (plus or minus 24hrs) and no crazy physical, political, or economic news happens, and then if nothing happens on second possible date in June then this hypotheses can be thrown away forever. And if nothing happens this February 19 yet the 188 day cycle still continues... well I guess I will have to see if the cycle shortens sometime in the future by 33 days. Yet if nothing happens Feb 19 or March 22 (plus or minus 24hrs), then perhaps Dec 3 2012 is nothing more than an interesting kawinkadink... and all of my dreams equal nothing more than my subconscious trying to catalog all that I've read, watched and or listened to over the last several years... one things for certain however, I'm about to find out one way or another. And I figured I might as well bring you people along for the ride.

If you get the chance to see the progression then do check it out – these are all in-line Jupiter, Mars, Sun, Moon, Mercury, Venus and Saturn and Spica (of Libra) between 3rd and 21 st of December 2012. The Moon actually progresses outwards..from Saturn to between Venus and then between Mercury and then the Sun..then Mars on the other side..and finally towards Jupiter..like a snake windings it way path 😊
Good to see 😊

Another Aspect of the Star Alignment would be logically Venus, Mercury and Saturn..have these ever been in this order before? The size of the planets according to the size of the actual pyramid being conform one another?

Reply

B 102 May 2, 2011 at 12:24 pm

I find it interesting to use the Pyramids and the local planets to align all three on that specific time line. However, am thinking if the pyramids are the centre of the belt..where on Earth are the other places in the star scheme? Is it a city, a town a place of interest? Does it point towards something else?? Something hidden..or lesser known to date. Surely just by looking at the belt is not everything..you have to look at the whole system of Orion and then reflect on its bearings.

Secondly if the Mayans had such knowledge, then surely some place on Earth there would be alignments also – South America, The Orient..Asia..Australia..places where ancient civilisations were found..there is a connection to each..though finding them and reflecting back on them is so to see a daunting task.

Mr. Charles Marcello,

It is always gratifying to find another researcher who offers more insight about the purpose of the pyramids of Giza. Your findings of the planetary alignments within the Giza complex are most fascinating.

But...

The job of the researcher is to enlighten his audience with his understanding of the material being reviewed, since many, like myself, are not familiar with the intricacies of the materials you have enumerated (or how they interconnect).

So...

Please do not chide us about our lack of knowledge in all areas of these arcane studies. Instead, you should guide us through your paths of research, showing how these lines of inquiry both connect and have relevance. You seem to have developed a hypothesis about how all these informational lines intersect with meaning, but do not give the key – that is – understanding why these are important.

I am sure there will be geophysical ramifications with the galactic alignment (as has been recently demonstrated in the news), but to what extent will have to be seen.

You seem to say that it was possible that earlier cultures not only had knowledge of the solar system (with a deep understanding of celestial mechanics, and geodesic knowledge to align these sites), but that they tried to “push forward” this information to our time to try to warn us of possible negative consequences relating to this time frame.

Interesting...

I shall count on you to enlighten me further, since frankly I haven't the time nor the ability to dedicate the necessary study of these aspects further. I also doubt I would bring to the endeavor your dedication or enlightened insight you seem to bring to the subject.

So...

Get off your ass and start writing..!

With Sincerest Regards,

Gary Udovich

Dear Charles,
God bless you for what you do and for what you search
Keep looking upward. It is the only way.
Don't pay attention, don't even listen what others say.
You work for many, as well as for your self.And we thank you for that.
Keep looking and help us look too.
We all going to SEE what it is True very soon anyway.

I truly didn't expect the last two responses. I'm giving everything away for free. You don't have to pay me to learn this information or a publisher or an agent, nor have I created a website where I make money off of the traffic... all of this is being done on purpose... I give all of this to you and the world for free. I'm not asking for notoriety, fame, or wealth. I simply wish for the whole world to learn of this information. I've said on other websites, and now on this one... If claiming this information for yourself is what it will take for you to share this wonderful discovery with the world, then so be it. The only thing I ask is for people to do the work themselves, so that way you know its true instead of someone telling its true. That's called Freedom... By the way... my last response was a open letter to the wonderful people here at World-Mysteries.Com, to those who have responded thus far and a dedication to the people of Egypt. While at the same time asking the reader to share this information and to learn more. I guess my ego knows no bounds.

Hello Everyone this is Charles Marcello.

First, I want to thank everyone at World-Mysteries for being dedicated to giving their readers and the world as much information as they can regarding ancient mysteries. What many of you may not know, the staff at World-Mysteries is responsible for researching and posting every picture within this blog. All I did was explain what they would find if they compared Dec 3, 2012 to the Pyramids of Giza. I did not give them any hints on how to go about finding the mathematical solutions. Science demands in order for something to be true, others must be able to replicate the results. The pictures provided within this blog proves anyone who is willing to start this journey will in fact see exactly what our truly ancient ancestors purposely left behind. And more is to come!

Second, please understand I'm not trying to yell at anyone. The choice of opening your mind to this discovery is completely up to you. I try extremely hard not to force my discoveries onto anyone. However, I am trying to stress how important it is that people share this information, and if they are so inclined, that they begin this journey as soon as possible.

At the time of this post, there are only 19 months left before an extremely rare planetary convergence that matches the Pyramid Layout of Giza takes place on Dec 3, 2012. This is an event that hasn't been seen and won't be seen again in almost 1000 generations. That is massively huge and 99.99999 percent of the world has no idea this is about to take place in the very near future.

I realize in our world of TV's, computers, video games, and all of us screaming at our microwaves to hurry up, almost none of us takes the time to look up any more. Yet thousands of years ago our truly ancient ancestors created a monument so fantastic, in the coming weeks as more is revealed, I guarantee its going to change the way you view history and our world. This blog and those pictures are there to simply get your attention. To hopefully inspire you to dig deeper towards greater understanding and appreciation towards the level of complexity our truly ancient ancestors purposely created into those marvelous monuments, so as to preserve and pass their advanced knowledge forward in time. My sincere hope is after understanding those pictures were created by researchers other then myself... that it will inspire you to look at those Pyramids with a brand new appreciation. As of my last communication with the wonderful people here at World-Mysteries they are working at testing more of my conclusions. There will be more exciting information to come.

Also, I am dedicating the first part of this discovery to the Nation and to all the people of Egypt. I am asking for your help... if you know of any one of Egyptian decent I ask that you please send them a link to this blog, or send them one of those pictures researched and published by the dedicated folks here at World-Mysteries for the benefit of all their readers and the world.

Sincerely,

—Charles Marcello

Manuel Vega, every human has a different criterion due to the individual makeup of each person consumed by the complexity of chaos and order. Our minds are not unlike a holographic plate ergo in a multidimensional configuration. I would surmise that there is a consensus of some kind but I have always found in "My" experience of some years, that one can scream at the top of their lungs a truth or whisper to their inner mentality just about any statement, and for one to mark skepticism on any utterance is an individual choice. I tend to evaluate and analyze the gestalt makeup of all feedback no matter what it might be. That's just me.

Reply

Manuel Vega 115 April 28, 2011 at 3:37 pm

The louder one yells to know the truth, the more I tend to be skeptical. It would help a more mature, digested and less emotional exposition. Once commented on the formal aspect of this post, I would say that to relate the architecture of ancient monuments to the cycles of the sky is a very valid approach, and one that can provide us with many answers to their mysteries.

Mr. Los 116 December 5, 2011 at 10:37 am do u not look to the past for answers to ur now or future. now think about what is said. most people in this day in age only see things one sided yes even the smartest. thats only beacuse they are trying to prove a point yes even u.if one steps bck and looks at all we come to see that all is not very diffrent but infact intertwine to tell a more alabrate story one that has may never been told. take scince religon mythical with evrything else u herd at it come to b one big same story. in fact its when u take the time to do this that u may find the answer that u never expected. notice the pyramids u c 3d when in fact it also has a botton. never look at things one sided even so member there is a top and bottom to all

You sound like a teacher and I know whereof you speak if you are a teacher. The point of the above is to give us a point of departure in order to contemplate the possible and impossible. I request that all realize that anything is good if it brings us eventually to the truth of our being here in Time/Space. We need to reclaim our former knowledge. By the by, I am a former educator and administrator on the university level and that really means absolutely nothing when one considers the objective — to build off the possible. Hang tough and think of the potential.

The pyramids and most of their temple complexes were created long ago during a period of between 12,900 years ago and within the years that the comet went into orbit and fragmented into parts that rained down periodically over another 3,000 years. During that time humanity scrambled to survive the first impacts that destroyed a very advanced civilization of genetic specialists and scientists via tsunamis and earthquakes spanning on to the periodic raining down of the orbital fragments that saw a final catastrophe of vast flooding of the earth. In those years humanity dwindled down to a few million beings scattered remotely around the Earth and a few spots of highly advanced collectives who established the Pyramids and other great sites around the planet. Those who remain now live in and near Area 51. In the meantime, we go about our silly little lives not realizing just how vast the universe is and just how wonderful existence is in this projected Moire Arena. Humans have forgotten their primary Mission. Pity.
