Meanwhile, the US embassy in Ukraine has been caught scrubbing evidence of biolabs in Ukraine while mainstream media and fact checkers have begun telling the masses that the biolabs don't exist.

Ukrainian President Volodmyr Zelensky stated Friday that Russian forces are firing at "military installations" leaving analysts speculating that term could include US-installed and operated bio-labs.

According to US government documents, the US has multiple biolabs in Ukraine. In typical Pentagon fashion, these biolabs are marketed as "defense."

Russia has been warning the US for months to stop operating dangerous biolabs on their doorstep. Mainstream media won't touch the topic now, but they did cover the news in the past.

Four months ago, Russia and China asked the UN for the US to be "checked and limited" in biological capabilities.

Russia and China blamed the US for the Covid-19 outbreak and were fearful that the US had more bioweapons to be unleashed on the world.

How does this relate to Ukraine?

Putin has admitted he is engaged in a "special military operation" to demilitarize Ukraine. Mainstream analysts fail to understand the possible scope of this statement.

US BIOLABS IN UKRAINE

As we reported earlier, In the last 24 hours, the US embassy removed all PDF files from the embassy website here: <https://ua.usembassy.gov/embassy/kyiv/sections-offices/defense-threat-reduction-office/biological-threat-reduction-program/>

However, the internet sleuths archived the information before it could be memory-holed forever.

Here is a full list of the biolabs:

US officials have gone into overdrive attempting to explain away the existence of the biolabs. Robert Pope, the director of the Cooperative Threat Reduction Program, a 30-year-old Defense Department program, has admitted that the labs could release "dangerous pathogens."
